

Oneness of the Heart, Mind and Soul with Jesus

Oneness with Jesus, our King, is the desire of his heart. That's how we were created to live. It's how Adam and Ezer lived with God (actually God the Son), in the garden east of Eden. What we need to realize today is that being spiritually reborn in the New Covenant era where the Fall has been cancelled in the lives of Kingdom sons, we are expected to learn to live like Adam did.

This oneness is most closely experienced by newly weds who have 'kept themselves' before marriage. They are intimately engrossed in each other so that their hearts, souls, minds and wills meld. This is done freely as they commune with each other, free of barriers.

We must aim for this type of relationship with Jesus. Even if it sounds feminine or wishy-washy, it's the reality that he wants, but the benefits are all ours. We think our Kingdom lives are all about being obedient to our monarch. It's not. Life in the Kingdom is a love relationship that functions, at its peak, in oneness, where all our needs are met so we are fully satisfied with life. There's no other way to experience this in a permanent way. Marriage oneness doesn't last because it's based on the natural realm. Our oneness with Jesus lasts forever.

He's looking for oneness in every component of our being – our heart, soul and will. Our spirit is already there, so it's every other part of our being that we have to participate in aligning with him.

Here's his invitation to oneness.

“There is no bond of union on Earth to compare with the union between a soul<sup>1</sup> that loves me and me. Priceless beyond all Earth's imaginings is the friendship. In the merging of heart and soul and will a oneness results that only those who experience it can even dimly realize.”<sup>2</sup>

NOTE: This invitation to oneness was given out in the 1930s. It's an eternal invitation for all people, and all times.
