

Be Prepared For Action

My son, it's time to progress. Time to move on to what I have for you. Put behind you (aside) the past and look to the future where I am - where you will be. Come up here with me to the high places where you can see the panorama of what's around you and what's ahead. Here you have a clear view, unhindered and unfettered by your attitudes and worldview. Come here with me. Look! See what I see. Comprehend what's about to come upon you and upon the Earth. It's a grave thing - it's a wonderful thing. It's simply incomprehensible to the world, but it's my ways that will succeed - not the world's ways.

Change your ways to fit in with (accommodate) mine, for in this you will have success. Success like never before. My ways are not your ways or the world's ways, they are far superior. They are incomprehensible to most, but I'm going to reveal them to you. This is a heavy burden for you to carry, but you will do it (carry it) for me.

I have chosen you from all those on the face of the Earth for this task. It's a great task - a glorious task. I have trained you and equipped you for this day. You have been thankful to-date for your experiences and what they enable you to do. From now on, I will experience you with my experiences. Not earthly experiences, but heavenly experiences. Cleanse your heart and be prepared for action. Action will soon follow this time together. Be prepared, as I warned you before. Be well prepared, for the time ahead is difficult and requires you to lean on me in greater ways - much greater ways. I have spoken through you in the past to great effect, but it will be more highly honed and straight to the point in coming days.

Do not look at men - do not fear men. Speak my words with boldness and gladness - gladness that I have chosen you and use you.

It is hard to manage your affairs these days with so much on your plate. I will ease that. I will take you to a place of peace. I will meet with you and talk with you. I will strengthen you for the tasks ahead - these great tasks I have planned for you. Don't be afraid of what's coming, just stay close to me. Cling to me, rest in me and you will float along like a cork on the surface of a river, with ease. It's all in me, not in you or your strength. It's all about me - not about you.

You have my authority to do what I have for you to do. Don't be afraid to step out and command or decree what I tell you to say. It's my words that have power and meaning, in the spiritual realm and natural realm. I am the Creator of all things and all things obey me and my words to them are instantly followed. They are not like humans which have the will and authority to reject what I say. The Earth is mine and it does what I tell it to do. You are to do the same - do what I tell you, and all will be OK.

Do not stray from my spoken word as this is an error and error does not produce my will. My will is supreme and I will have it operating through you to achieve my purposes - Father's purposes. This is what I was 'created' to do, to perform Father's will in love and obedience. I desire to do his will and you must also - out of love and compassion for others. Make sure compassion is at the heart of what you do as it will keep you on the right path and keep you from pride. Compassion takes your focus off yourself and puts it on others. Let humility be your guiding method of operation as the humble will see me and do the great exploits I have promised that they will do.

Do this all for me, out of love for me and you will succeed. Stray from this and dire consequences will befall you [from the enemy and from other people]. My love is strong towards you - remember that.
