

More on this Current Time in the Kingdom

(August 2020)

Following on from the prophetic insight I was given concerning the current season we are in,¹ a time when Forerunners are leading the vanguard for the restoration of all things, this is an update. More information is being received to cement this time in our understanding and to equip us with the knowledge we need to move forward without deviation. There will be glory rising alongside the rise of darkness, so we must focus on where we are going and make sure we are aligning with Heaven every step of the way. Read on!

KINGDOM MESSAGES

Bill Burns

(★prophetic downloads recorded in August 2020)

*"I am revealing My plans and purposes to you in this time. Indeed, I speak of the revelation that I shall bring at this time. Look for that which has been hidden in darkness. Watch for what I show you to come to pass. I ask you, "What is it that you see? What is it that you understand? What is it that you know about what I am showing you?" You will have to think about your answers. But, you shall come forth strengthened in your relationship with Me, says the Lord. Walk with Me. For this purpose you were created."*²

*"I will give you that which you need. I will bring My word into your life with such strength and power that it will become the lens through which you look. And, as you view your circumstances and the things that are taking place around you through My lens, you will have the understanding of which way to go. You will have an understanding of what you should do. You will have understanding, for it is by My Spirit that I speak to you. It is by My Spirit that I lead you. And, it is by My Spirit that I reveal to you, My people, those things which you need to know and to do, says the Lord."*³

"Prophets can break through in the spiritual realm, but apostles can break through in the natural. It's a divine partnership that has immense weight in the spirit when they work together. I believe that even though the prophet's charge is critical for this year; it is those who carry apostolic grace that must step forward to break through these issues that divide us. There is a supernatural mantle that true apostles carry that is felt in the spirit, and it has power to break yokes and open doors. Where prophetic voices can shift the atmosphere, apostolic authority can move mountains.

*But even as this is an important reminder for leaders, there is an even greater message here for all believers. We cannot afford to get stuck on our differences or keep building walls of self-defense. We must look deeper into that which truly makes us one.”*⁴

Lana Vawser

(★extract from a prophetic download published in 7-8-2020)

“The attack has been about the new level of authority these prophets of purity are stepping into to instruct and lead the body of Christ in how to build with me in this new era. I am raising up these prophets of purity as skilled craftsman in the spirit. They shall have eyes as eagles to see the detailed instruction of my wisdom to instruct and equip the church in how to build with me. I am positioning these prophets of purity to receive wisdom and move in authority to direct and equip the church like they have never experienced before.

*Prophets of Purity, you must continue to stand, you must stay focused upon Me with ferocious focus and do not engage or meditate upon the swirl or the confusion, come deeper into the secret place with Me and stand. It’s about to break! It’s about to break! It is about to break!”*⁵

(★prophetic downloads recorded in August 2020)

*“I am taking you to new heights, to places you would never have dreamed of. I speak of spiritual high ground. You want to advance, but hindering forces have stood in your way. Now is a time when you can break through the barriers and see more clearly the wonders of My kingdom and to know more completely what you are capable of in the Spirit. Get ready to rise!”*⁶

*“Prepare to be stretched beyond your comfort zone. You will be moved in ways that surpass usual personal expression and will test your ability to be flexible. Keep your focus and trust in Me. I am with you in this time of expansion. Discern what I am doing and where the Spirit is moving and stay in that flow.”*⁷

*“You have been transitioning into a new era, and change is becoming a way of life. You have not yet arrived, but you have made steady progress. I will lead you forth with great grace. It is still one step at a time and one day at a time on the way to your destination. Trust Me to show you the way and give you peace when the feeling of being unsettled begins to overwhelm you. I am on this journey with you.”*⁸

*“One phase of your life is coming to an end, and you are in preparation for the next series of events. Be sensitive to My leading and make every step be one with Me in Spirit. The days following can be either depressing or exhilarating. It will depend on the choices you make as you go forward. Set your hope, your faith and your gaze on Me and I will bring you through in victory.”*⁹

*“The changes that you have endured were and are necessary to prepare the way for that which is to come. There must be an end of the old order before the beginning of the new order. This transition has been in process for quite some time, and now you will begin to see the culmination. Do not fear. I have been with you in the hard times and the easy times, and I will be with you as long as you are in Me.”*¹⁰

you feel that I am distant, bathe your heart once again in my love and push aside the lies that would deceive you. I know you. I understand the moving of your heart. The pleasure I find in you is not because of your works, but because of your love. Having never seen me, you still love me. When you set your gaze on things above and not on your weaknesses, I'm stirred to pour out on you greater measures of my love and holiness.”¹¹

‘The King’s Shock-troops’ “[T]hese warriors, these soldiers of mine are few and far between. There’s rigorous training they’ve got to go through. They have to be transformed into shock-troops. They have to be strengthened and stabilised, made ‘tough as nails’, to oppose the attacks and the advances of the enemy. These don’t shirk at skirmishes that come their way. The training program has been vigorous and it has been ongoing because it takes quite a long time for the training to be successful. That’s because I’m working with human beings.

The biggest problem I’ve had to face is their insecurities and their woundedness – the damages that’s been done by life. These have stymied the work that I’ve had to do in their lives. It’s slowed it down, but I am making progress. Even though the numbers are small, I am pleased with the development that has happened. They are beginning to be more committed. They are starting to see the plans that I have placed before them as essential for their life’s work. They have committed themselves to being these troops. They have put aside their lives, their families, their vocations and their personal lives, and committed themselves to this, just like Australia’s SAS soldiers do when they train and prepare to be inducted into that unit.

I am proud of these. I know they are doubting themselves in areas. I know they have failed in many of their tests, but they have ‘true grit’. They repent of their weaknesses and turn towards my way of doing things, put their failures behind them, and with ‘faces like flint’, ‘hard as nails’, they move forward to be successful and pass the fail tests to be in my elite unit.

I have called many to be these troops, but like Gideon, I’ve had to weed many out because they weren’t totally committed. The cares of life have drawn them away. They have been lackadaisical in the training that I have given them. But the ones who are under training at the moment are making good progress – slow, but good progress.

I will be calling many more to undergo this training. I have time. I’m not pressured at this juncture by a timeframe. That’s because these are advanced troops, the ones who go before the rest of my army. They will plunder the territory of the enemy and make many ways for my army to move forward. These are the real ‘workhorses’, because of their commitment and their tenacity and their dogged focusness on my plans. They know I am the General, the Supreme Commander, and they are totally committed to my voice. They love me and they obey, not just comply. They carry out my plans to the best of their abilities, relying on me and my Spirit to guide them and to empower them.

There are many more in the divisions of my army that I am preparing for the battles ahead, the spiritual battles. I am always assessing the hearts of my people, to see where their allegiance lies, and then drawing them into the various divisions of my army. My biggest problem, of course, is that many of my people don’t think they’re in an army. They’re too busy enjoying their lives, singing and dancing and feasting and enjoying being in my family. There is nothing wrong with this, but like the natural, people in the towns and the cities carry out their lives while the armed forces and the militia train and defend from the attacks of the enemy. I have my family, my large family, and I have this nation of Australia that needs protection.

Those who know they’re in a battle, who know they are warriors in my army, are volunteering to join and committing themselves to it. Not everybody will be my shock-troops. Not everyone will be my elite warriors, but like Nehemiah and the Israelis rebuilding their city, every one of my people needs to be a soldier in their mind and in their skill set. No one – and I mean no one in my Kingdom can afford not to be martial in their function because the enemy attacks individuals, not just an army. He attacks stragglers, strayers, the weak and the wounded. This is why you all have to have the ability to attack and to defend, otherwise the enemy will take you out and you will become his property.

So my call continues to go out, "Volunteer. Step up. Join my elite troops. Join my SAS troops. Join my vanguard, but you must be committed".

In finishing, remember that Australia is my nation, and my people who are in it are called to defend it in the spirit realm, to work in the natural realm for the extension of my Kingdom, to expand it. That has to be the focus of my people, not their lives. The Kingdom and my plans must be foremost in their mind and guiding them day by day." ¹²

OPPOSITIONAL ADVICE

Wanda Alger

(★extract from a prophetic article published on 26-8-2020)

"Saints of God, the Spirit of God is yet hovering and brooding over the darkness. The voids that are before us are about to be filled with a wonder and majesty yet unseen. He who created this vast expanse with all its shades and shadows has been working behind the scenes, getting ready to reveal another one of His masterpieces. It is the sons and daughters who have risen with courage and fear nothing but Him. It is the promise of Eden returning once again to the earth to display life, light and the wild expanse of His glory. Know that behind every cloud of darkness is a piece of heaven waiting to be born!

But we have a choice. As we face this darkness, we must determine our response. Once again, the people of God are before a mountain. Once again we are feeling the shakings and storms emanating from unseen realms. But this mountain is the mountain of the Lord, and the only access to it is through the fear of the Lord (see Isa. 2:2-4). He is again inviting us to come unto this place where courage is apprehended and boldness is mustered.

Do not make the same mistake as the people of old. Do not avoid the darkness or turn from it. Do not stay on the sidelines or shrink back in uncertainty. It is time to run into the darkness, for it is in the thick darkness that He is sharing His secrets and revealing His heart! Just as He did with Moses, He is calling His servants and those who have been set apart for this season of deliverance that is now upon us, to come into His chambers and fellowship with His Spirit. It is only in this inner sanctum of the fiery mountain where true power and authority can be found.

Understand that this secret place is no longer found in the safety of the pastures or the hiddenness of the caves. No, this secret place can only be found in the darkness, in the storms, in the shakings. It is only when we step into and penetrate the darkness that we will see Him as He truly is.

This means to discard the fear of man and the fear of impending doom and trust in that which you cannot see. Gird up your loins and move forward! It's time to face that which you dread. Do not turn back to familiar ways or paths of comfort. Do not allow that which you see and hear to turn you aside from this invitation into the dark places where the enemy cowers and the Lord reigns. Do not allow your fears of the dark to keep you from this upgrade in the Spirit and impartation from heaven.

Faith is being matured and the fear of the Lord is being established. For in these days of deliverance, those on the Lord's side will not be known by their caution in staying safe, but by their courage in penetrating the darkness." ¹³

“Keep your soul pure as you strive to be straightforward and honest. These are days when you cannot always trust those around you to tell the unvarnished truth. Prejudice will twist the facts to fit a certain narrative. Open your heart and mind to know that which is correct, accurate and genuine without personal bias. The devil is a liar and the father of lies.” ¹⁴
