

The Questions We Are Required To Answer

Being a Kingdom son is not a passive existence. We're actively in the King's army and we're also agents of Heaven on the Earth. As agents, we're to follow the Spirit's lead to suss out enemy activity and neutralise 'dark' agents (spiritually) wherever and whenever appropriate. As undercover (covert) agents, analyzing people and situations and communicating back to HQ, is a normal part of our Kingdom life.

These analyses are vitally important as we carry out the King's plans when he reveals them to us. We're to expect these plans to be revealed to us as revelations, not biblical text or pulpit teaching. The plans are only revealed, personally and corporately, to sons who are prepared to listen for them and act on them.

As we see his plans coming to pass, we aren't to stand idly by either. Rather, we are to participate in them, as we are led by the Spirit. As sons we are the King's representatives, his agents, so we need to observe what's going on so we aren't uninformed. We don't only rely on the Spirit for information, we should be analyzing our surrounds, like secret agents do.

Some of what we see happening is part of our training and testing, so we need to actively participate with our King in these so we operate like his agents, not like human observers.

All this may sound like the 'cloak-&-dagger' stuff of movies, but life in the Kingdom is not about Christian activity that makes us feel good. Once we put our 'hand up' and join the King's Kingdom, it's like joining the French Resistance in WWII. Our lives are to be 'on the line' 24/7 and our focus is to be on King's plans.

Here's his recent instructions to us:

*"I am revealing My plans and purposes to you in this time. Indeed, I speak of the revelation that I shall bring at this time. Look for that which has been hidden in darkness. Watch for what I show you to come to pass. I ask you, "What is it that you see? What is it that you understand? What is it that you know about what I am showing you?" You will have to think about your answers. But, you shall come forth strengthened in your relationship with Me, says the Lord. Walk with Me. For this purpose you were created."*¹

Asking ourselves questions in our mind and spirit is part of our active involvement in what Heaven is doing in our Country.

You were created for just this time in Kingdom history, so get involved. That way, you'll have a greater chance of entering the destiny Father planned for you.
