(Following my time of talking with the King about the future)

Yes, journalling is a good practice. It allows you to hear from me and to record it so you can refer to it and be strengthened at a later date (time). It's in these times I'll download to you my plans.

Yes, I will download the plans for the future so you can fit in with it (align yourself with it). The plans need to be adhered to so my purposes are fulfilled in your life. These plans have been for time immemorial in the past and they have now been brought into the present to be activated.

Yes, you were born for a time such as this. This was my mighty plan for you.

You are to succeed in what I have for you to do. This is my will, my perfect will for you. You are not to falter. Look straight ahead to me (at me) so your 'footsteps' are firm on the ground to prevent faltering. Faltering has occurred in your past. Faltering has been a key to your past failures. Recognise this and don't let yourself be drawn into sidelines or issues that will cause you to stop or stumble. Yes, you will falter in the natural, but I'm calling you higher, to a place above the ground where you can't (are unable) to falter or trip. Keep your eyes on me just like Peter was supposed to do so he could walk on water. You will walk on water - not literally - but, you will do things that will seem impossible (defy logic). Your logic is being circumvented as I train you to listen to me and be obedient to my call and direction. Logic has inhibited you in the past, but no more. You will now move in the Spirit as you are supposed to (as you were designed to). This is my plan and mode of operation for you.

There is much to do and time is short - as you know. So let's get down to business - my business and not your business or plans.

This nation (these nations) need to be taken for me and I'm relying on you to fulfil your part in this taking. It's not as you would expect. My ways are higher, much higher, and I need to fill you in on them so you are privy to what I'm doing and going to do. These days are dark, and there is more to come - darker, much darker. But you will shine for me as the sun shines in the day sky. No one can hide from its light or presence - no one can blot it out from the sky. So it will be with you. Your light will shine brightly. Others will see it. They won't be able to help seeing it and they won't be able to snuff it out. This is my promise to you. You will shine, you will show (display) my glory to the world and draw others to me.

This is not all. There is much work to do, much devotion of your time to the things I have planned. It's not time to be lazy or distracted as there is a precision to the timing of events in these last days. Fit in with me (accommodate me) - my time and my desire - and you will see things happen that you wouldn't believe - except you will know beforehand it was to be expected.

Rotate your time around your tasks so you don't get absorbed in just one arm of your work. Keep all areas (candles) fresh (alight) in your mind as you work on each of the segments. There seems a lot to do and the works seem disparate, but it will all come together like a mosaic, as I have shown you in picture form.

See to it that you adhere to the principles that I teach you. These will keep you in good stead and will firmly establish you in the work I have for you.

Yes, I am teaching you new things, things unheard of by the general populace and things even the saints have not dreamt of or even considered.

These are important times and they require important undertakings - understandings that will take you where you haven't been before in spiritual matters. They are places in my Spirit where you need to be to accomplish my plans. We must work together - in unison, joined at the hip. This is critical (essential) and it is my desire. I desire to work as one with you to accomplish my plans - it's the only way of sure success.
