

Nothing But Net

It's time to be placed where I want you, with ease - without resistance. I need you to fall into place like a piece in a chunky jigsaw puzzle. "Nothing but net" means you slot in without anything being done to get you there - you just land perfectly where I place you. Resistance means I have to use ways to place you and I don't want to have to do that any more. It's time to submit and be moulded into shape quickly. Time is short and all resistance uses up time - valuable time that could be utilized for other important purposes. It's not that you've totally resisted me, it's just [that] a shift has taken place and you need to align yourself with it - the new paradigm. From now on I'm going to need complete and rapid compliance.

Time is short; time is short. Things are speeding up - hotting up, you might say - and this requires complete compliance. Yes, you have a free will, but for the Kingdom's sake - for its advancement - the time has come and now is where compliance and submission to me are essential - a way of thinking, a way of life - even a lifestyle, you might say. Yes, you have been fitting in well, but it's time to go up a notch (a cog). Speeding up is what it's all about now - rapidly fitting in to any plans - [done] in rest, not 'speed'. Compliance is a form of submission you're not used to because you've been operating a lot in your own free will. This is not wrong - I gave you free will as a gift, as a grace. But now you must surrender this to me - willingly. The times require this for us to travel together, to be one together.

My plans (Father's plans) are the ultimate goal, so you must bring yourself to submit to this as my bond servant - lovingly and freely, not in rebellion or 'gritting your teeth'. Be mine, be wholly mine for the journey ahead.

In the past I've had to bounce you off the back wall, to get you where I want you. I had to use diverse means to centre you in my will. Other times you deviated slightly and it has been the ring that funnelled you into place. No more. It's time for 'nothing but net' - straight in, all the time. On location; on the spot; in my will, all the time.

Yes, things have been hard lately, but this is part of my preparation for you, as you realize. Keep pushing ahead - in me, not without me. Don't lag behind or get too far ahead.

'Nothing but net' means; I put you in places and circumstances, not you. It's always about my will; my best for you and the Kingdom, which happen at the same time - the one function brings both these about. 'Nothing but net', what a great expression! It reminds me of my days as a boy in Israel - I enjoyed my youth.

But today I have much to do, Father has given me great responsibility and you're part of my team (an integral member). Don't forget that. I need you on my team. I picked you and trained you for such a time as this. From time immemorial past I have been planning this day. You may not be able to comprehend this, but it is true (it's a fact).

Now, listen to me. There's much coming against you to cause you to be off-target. Compliance to my will will enable you to 'hit the spot' where I want you in all situations and circumstances. Don't listen to others - listen only to me. I'll be your ultimate guide. There will be those who will want to lead you astray for their own motives and for the enemy's plans (reasons). Do not follow. Be lead by me instead. There's no glory for you where they are going. Glory will only be manifest in me and when you follow me. I will lead you to my work for you which will bring the glory for me that you seek. You seek rightly. It is for me that you should display glory - this is my purpose for you. It's not just so I can push you around the place (the court). It's all about displaying glory so that the combined glory fills the Earth. As others get the idea like you, the glory builds - builds to a crescendo that heralds my coming (my return) to take my place and bring ultimate glory to the Earth as I intended it to be.

Father is enjoying watching what is happening and approves of where I'm taking you - you'll like that accolade. Father says he's watching over you 'like a hawk' to see that nothing befalls you - nothing untoward happens to you - but it's all up to you to fit in with us to see it happen. Even the issue in Vanuatu was in his sights and he had you safe in his hands at all times, as you experienced.

Yes, there's great glory ahead, but this must come through trials. Just as a gold crown is vigorously polished so that it shines radiantly, so glory comes out of adversity and difficulty - that's the way that it is. That's the way it's been planned, so only the compliant, the endurers get to display the glory.

Thank you for submitting to me and surrendering your will and flesh to my purposes.

*Thank you for wanting to show my glory to all and sundry - this is a great choice.
Go ahead and enjoy the day.
Your beloved.*
