

Infused Knowledge

The most important knowledge is the knowledge that's in the mind of the Trinity (The God-head, to use a theological term). This is far superior to human knowledge and even biblical knowledge. [I've covered the problems and limitations of biblical knowledge too many times to reiterate it here.] Suffice to say, the best knowledge we can ever have is Heaven's knowledge because this contains all the knowledge in existence.

Heavenly knowledge consists of wisdom, understanding, spiritual knowledge and natural knowledge (knowledge of the natural realm). Many leave the last one out thinking it's irrelevant, but it's not. The natural realm is a component of creation and was brought into existence by the Creator. All the natural laws, mathematics, biology, astrophysics, etc., were brought into being by the same Creator. That means he 'invented' them, so to speak – they are the province of his possession. Therefore, pure natural knowledge is also Heaven's knowledge.

As we will continue to live on Earth as sons, managing the planet and the cosmos in The Age to Come, natural knowledge is just as valuable as spiritual knowledge for us.

At present we are being taken on a journey to gain spiritual knowledge which will bring us into greater maturity as sons. This is our most important knowledge, but we should never despise natural knowledge, just put it in the right perspective.

For me, I've been gaining Heaven's knowledge for quite some time now, and it's knowledge that's been deposited in my spirit. I used to have a lot of theological 'head' knowledge, but this new knowledge is genuine spiritual knowledge given to me by the Trinity. The main source of this has been from downloads, revelations and prophecy.

Recently, I have come to realise that there are two other sources that I wasn't aware of which have enabled knowledge to be spiritually infused into my spirit:

- Prophetic Journalling – This year I felt the desire to upload my prophetic journal entries onto my website in an effort to encourage others to do the same. This journalling was a critically important process in my practice of hearing properly with my spirit. As I got these entries ready for uploading, I realised that what was downloaded to me, even as far back as 2013, was now part of my Kingdom knowledge and understanding. I hadn't read these entries since I wrote them, so, obviously, the words had gone straight into my spirit and were stored there. They were not just for writing down, but also for my bank of Kingdom knowledge.
- The Presence – I've practised coming into the presence of my Beloved for years now, not knowing that while there, Holy Spirit was depositing knowledge and understanding in me. I knew he was changing me from the inside-out, but I was unaware that he was teaching me.

Even though some (probably a lot) think my knowledge, as presented in my teaching, is erroneous, I can honestly say that it's come from the Trinity. Some of what I teach may contain misunderstandings, but as my King continues to teach and train me, these will be ironed out. I'm not afraid of error as that would prevent me from progressing in faith.
