

The Wrath of God Wrongly Perceived

(As part of our investigation into “What is Salvation”¹ I asked our King the following questions about his wrath because Christian understanding of salvation is formed by this topic)

~~~~~ PART 1 ~~~~~

Question: Lord, we read about the wrath of God. How are we understand that in relation to your passionate love for us?

Message

“Yes, it’s there, but it’s hidden behind my passionate love. It’s not at the forefront, it’s not a driving force with me. It comes out of my love and it comes out of my righteousness.

I’m not being judgemental in the human way that judgementalism is a negative thing. I’m always positive, always. You must understand that. You must really grasp the fact that I am always positive. Anything that you consider to be negative in me, you are misconstruing it. There is no negativity in me. There is no negativity in my Father or in Holy Spirit. We are one, and we are united, and we are all positive. Like a doting father who wants the best for his children, we oversee your lives and desire you to work with us and comply with our instructions, and give us your undivided, un-watered-down love, unpolluted love, because that’s what we give to you.

My wrath has been poured out in justice. In fact, wrath is the term that has been used in the past to describe our discipline and correction and our attitude towards evil. But when you read “wrath”, you are looking at it from a human perspective. You’ve read about the outworkings of it, but without really knowing us intimately, so that we’re in oneness together and you know perfectly what our heart is, you don’t really understand how we operate when we are described as being wrathful. Please eliminate your concept of wrathfulness in relation to us from your vocabulary, from your mind. Everything we do is restorative. Our aim is to bring humanity back to where we created you to be.

We are not frustrated. There is no frustration in us, even if you’ve read and interpreted what we have said or what we have done as being frustrated. We are not in any way frustrated.

We understand our creation. We understand you. We understand that because of sin that’s now in the natural realm, everything has deteriorated. With the enemy working against you, plotting to completely destroy the work that we are doing in you and in the Earth, we totally understand and are compassionate towards you being in these circumstances. Our heart is for you; our hands are outstretched to you in love, wanting to draw you in.

Cease focusing on the writings about our wrath. You are in the New Covenant Age. You are in the age of grace. Take hold of that. Set that in your heart. Cement it in your mind, that grace is where you are living. Grace surrounds you. We are releasing grace on a constant basis. Don’t give into fear, as so many of my people have; fear of the wrath of God. My love and my compassion and my grace are at the forefront. See those, focus on those. Don’t look behind them, at discipline and correction, and the like. Keep yourself aligned with me, and like the child who doesn’t do anything wrong, they have nothing to fear from discipline or correction.

Live in our love. Bask in our love. Leave your understanding of what is known as the wrath of God. Leave it with us. Like your burdens that you pass onto us and allow us to deal with, treat that in the same way. Pass that concept onto us, and leave it there, and allow us to deal with your misunderstanding of it, and to explain it to you, where necessary. Leave it there like a burden, and move on. It’s the enemy that wants you to focus on negativity. You must see anything that you focus on that is negative is not coming from us. It is not approved of us and it’s not good for you.

We created you for life, to enjoy life, and to enjoy our life as well. Focus on living your Kingdom life as sons, and enjoy our pleasure in being with you and working together.”

~~~~~ PART 2 ~~~~~

Question: Lord, why can't we take at face value what's written about your wrath?

Message

“You are intelligent people. I created you that way, to be able to understand the mysteries and secrets that the hard-of-hearing do not want to understand or are incapable of knowing. I’ve placed in you my Spirit. It’s my Spirit that will bring enlightenment to you. Trust my Spirit. Don’t trust what your eyes see and read. The reality is the spirit realm. The reality is the truth that belongs to the spirit realm. The minds of men are corrupted, and it’s only through my Spirit that reality, that truth, can be taken hold of.

So, when it comes to what you read about the “wrath of God”, about me burning white hot with anger, I want you to temper what you read with what my Spirit says to you. My Spirit will reveal to you the truth. Not that there are lies in what has been written. Like the parables that I spoke when I was on Earth, you need to be able to spiritually hear and spiritually discern, so you understand the things that are written. They are not all to be taken at face value. Much of what is written is written parabolically in picture language. If you take things literally, it will be mistaken. You will not apprehend the truth. In fact, when you take things literally without allowing my Spirit to explain things to you, you are not functioning as sons. Everything in life is a partnership with me, so everything you hear, everything you read, everything you see, everything you think is real needs to be run past me. I am your filter.

Remember, I am the source of all truth because I live in reality. I have created all things. All truth, all knowledge resides in me, and if you work in partnership with me (which is what sons do), then you can talk to me and ask me to explain things to you. Or, a 24/7 activity is for you to listen to your spirit as my Spirit speaks to you. The fatal mistake that most people make is they listen to their mind and not to their spirit. I communicate Spirit-to-spirit. Humans work with their mind, and the enemy knows that and he works with their mind.

Hearing with your spirit which knows my voice (your regenerated spirit because you’re spiritually reborn), allows you to have access to the truth. This is why you need to finely hone your skills at hearing from me. Not necessarily prophetically, but the normal everyday, every-moment communication that we make with each other, Spirit-to-spirit. Remember, this is a love relationship that we’re in. With humans, it’s a heart-to-heart love relationship. With me, it’s a heart-to-heart plus Spirit-to-spirit relationship, and I’m always wanting you to know the secrets that other people don’t know. Of course, they’re “secrets” because they don’t have access to the knowledge that I have. They’re mysteries, they’re hidden from them because they don’t look for them and they don’t have the key to access them, which is my Spirit within them.

So be careful taking things literally, accepting things at face value even though you may be taught that’s the way to read it. I’ve given you discernment. My Spirit within you, in conjunction with your spirit, allows you to discern. There’s so much deception in the world system. There’s so much deception that can easily infiltrate you. This is why working with your mind, with theology, with science, with human philosophy, etcetera, is a recipe for disaster for your life.

Remember, sons listen to their father. They want to hear what their father has to say because their pleasure is to be about their father’s business. I demonstrated this; I modelled this. So set your heart and mind at hearing from us all the time so we can lead you, and so deception doesn’t have any access to you.”

~~~~~ PART 3 ~~~~~

Question: Lord, explain to us, so we understand, how your dominant character is love and not anger because we subconsciously see you as angry.

Message

“My character of love is a concept that people have not understood since the beginning of time. The fallen nature of man and the influence of the enemy to pervert what they know and what they think, has led to the overwhelming concept that I am an angry God. This is so far removed from the reality of who I am, that it could be said to be laughable. It's like saying your loving, dotting mother is an angry, dominating, cranky woman when she's not. That's what it's like describing me as an angry God. You know who your mum is in reality, and no one can tell you otherwise. I know who I am in reality, and you can 'bet your bottom dollar'² that is correct.

This is the concept that my people must learn at this time in history because what is ahead of us, together, as we move towards expanding my Kingdom so it fills the whole Earth, is this: Everything I do is loving. Everything I do is restorative. That's it in a nutshell.

My aim is to see creation – that is, the whole cosmos, including humanity, brought back to where I created it in the first place. The effects of The Fall have to be nullified to the extent that it no longer exists. This is what I am working towards, and, if I am a loving God, this should be a highlight for you of that character.

It's true, you are living in the Age of Grace because of the work I did as Jesus of Nazareth and what I accomplished in my death and resurrection. Father's character of love and mine, have always been there, and they always will be because this is who we are. There are many variations of our love out there among my people, but the central understanding is what I've just said. Everything I do is done out of love for a redemptive purpose, for the best.

For those of you who are parents, you know you correct and discipline your children when they're young because you want the best for them. I am not talking here about those who act out of anger or hate or resentment towards their children, I'm talking about genuine loving parents. You know that if you don't correct your child's bad habits, it will impact their lives severely some time in the future. You know that if they don't learn to align with society's protocols, the right way of doing things, the right way of speaking and the like, they won't fit into society properly. You also want to inculcate into your children good habits, good manners, good attitudes and good speech, and this all involves discipline and correction. Loving parents do this out of love. Sure, they make mistakes, when their soul and their emotions get involved and they do or say something that's not out of love. But the basic tenet of their operation is that they love their children and they want the best for them, and they know that if they leave them to themselves, there won't be much hope for them, because children don't understand the reality of the world around them. I want you to take that concept of a dotting parent and use it if you must have an analogy of who I am. I want the best for my people, and I operate out of love.

Some say that I can't be a loving God because of all the evil in the world. I don't have to explain that to you. You know that has come about because of The Fall, as a consequence of Adam's failure to remain true to me, and to comply with the principles I set in place at creation. You know that he gave over the dominion of the Earth to the enemy when he submitted to the request of the enemy, rather than to following my directives, and as the enemy has been given this dominion, he wreaks havoc because that's his nature. He wants to destroy everything that I'm doing, that Father is doing to bring everything back into goodness again. Out of love of creation, we placed humanity as our vice-regents, but because humanity hasn't followed our principles and protocols, and hasn't aligned with us, the Earth is suffering chaos.

This is not the result of our anger. It's the consequence of the failure of humanity to operate as they were created to. And more importantly, the failure of my people to take control of the spiritual atmosphere and see Heaven manifested on the face of the Earth, so that our love can be seen. There's a lot of work that needs to be done for my people to understand that our main character is love. If they don't understand it properly, they can't manifest it properly, and if they can't manifest it properly, they can't impact the world. So it's essential that you draw love from us, from your Internal Kingdom, and allow us to teach you about our love so that you can be effective representatives of us.”
