

Insight into The Restoration Of All Things

To know anything about things which are real (i.e. reality), we have to get our information from The Truth¹ himself.² For us, this is an imperative.

To find out about ‘The Restoration Of All Things’, we don’t ask anyone because it’s the Trinity’s initiative. We can’t even get perfect information about it from the Bible as there are only two, very basic reference to it there.³

This has been Father’s plan all along – to reverse the effects of The Fall and have creation back where it was in all its glory. This requires creation to be delivered from evil and from decay, and released into the same liberty and freedom that we have as sons of the Most High God.⁴

Here’s some of what Mike Parsons was told by Father about this restoration.⁵

“Son, prepare for difficult questions relating to restoration but do not be intimidated by those who have been conditioned by evangelicalism. Deconstruction is vital if My children who are bound are to be set free from the doctrines that separate and divide.”

“I came to unite My children into one family, one body, who have My heart and My mind. They are to reveal their Father to restore all back to Myself.”

“Son, the winds of change are blowing for you individually and for the season to change from justice to grace. The old order have been resisting the change but now those within the new order are also resisting the progression towards the restoration of all things through greater grace. Our desire is for this new season of grace to blow throughout the earth but those who should be facilitating the opening of the East gate are hindering its opening. Once again the old is resisting the new; but this has accelerated as those we have called to be gate keepers are holding back the winds. Son, honour the old but do not allow them to stop the change of season.”

“Son, a heart attitude of love towards all who are negative towards you, and towards the restoration of all things, is absolutely vital during this time of transition between justice and grace. The atmosphere will be charged, and many things will be said that are hurtful; but keep your heart right and allow Me to deal with the situations. Keep reaching out in love with the hand of peace and reconciliation and do not respond in retaliation. Trust Me, and the truth will come into the light. Love's light will prevail over and expose the darkness in the hearts of men; and those presently influenced by knowledge and charisma will see that character is the hallmark of sonship, not giftedness.”

“As the seasons change, so will maturity, until love is all in all; then creation will become truly free from its groaning and be restored by the light of true sonship. Let Me deal with accusations; and keep love's light shining brightly as you open a continent to heavenly revelation.”

“The season of grace is coming out of justice so that mercy will fully triumph over judgment. The harvest of harvesters will be the result of greater grace and grace upon grace. Son, the scales of darkness and deception can be overcome and removed from all things and My desire is that all things will be restored. Love has conquered and overcome all obstacles to restoration through the fullest expression of Our love within eternity converging with time at the cross. The resurrection has defeated death and its power through sin in all its forms as the Lamb that was slain has taken away the sin of creation. The power of spiritual death and separation has been broken and reconciliation is universal. The increase in the knowledge of the restoration of all things amongst sons who have experienced the reality of love will accelerate restoration dimensionally.”

Keep watching. More will be revealed to us about the Restoration Of All Things as this new era of the Kingdom progresses.
