

Set Your Heart on Your Journey

With our society producing in us a strong desire for quick fixes, it's a hard thing to put up with the journey of transformation Father takes us on to become who we're meant to be.

We can easily give up on the difficult process which is required to change us because of all the 'rubbish' in our character and our heart. This is a BIG mistake.

It's the processes we go through that change us, which in turn matures us, which in turn advances our sonship, which eventually takes us to our destiny.

Don't believe me? Read this:

*"Breakthrough will come as surely as the sun rises, but you must wait for it and not lose hope in the process. Set your heart on the journey that will take you to destiny. When you feel too weak to go on, rest assured that I will strengthen you and surround you with a hedge of protection. Do not quit."*¹

LANCE WALLNAU: Learn to enjoy the process so you can enter into what's ahead of you. If you can't enjoy it, but work against it, you can't enter through the 'doors' that are ahead of you.²
