

Great Plans Are Afoot

It's time to fly north! for what I've prepared for you - and prepared I have! There are exciting developments to take place. You will be pleased you went. You will see me in action as I lead the charge for you into the lives of those who will intersect with you.

Great plans are afoot. Great plans are being realised for you. Yes, for you my son. You have been waiting for this and imploring me for it - to be released. Are you ready - really ready? I don't believe so, but you will be released into what you can handle at this stage.

Bear up my son. All is well. You are travelling well. Make the distance and you will realise your dreams - dreams I have placed in you as you asked.

I'm so pleased you asked for wisdom, knowledge and understanding some time back. These are essential for your apostolic role, as you have realised recently.

Yes, big improvements are on the way - improvements in the way you handle people, money and the future.

Don't be fearful. I'm only taking you where I know you will be able to succeed. Don't fret about the 'ifs' and 'buts' - they will take care of themselves, because I AM WITH YOU.

Enjoy the flight tomorrow and stick close to me. The enemy will try to circumvent your work now that he knows I have plans for you. Stick with me and all will be well.

Bless you, my son.
