

Joined at the Hip

Dear child, you have so much to learn. It is good that you recognise that. Thank you for acknowledging it to me. It shows you are thinking rightly - your attitudes are right in this respect. Yes, in this respect you are right. You are not quite right in others, but I will train you so you will turn in the direction you should face.

Understanding does come from me and it is good that you acknowledge this. Keep seeking me for it for I have an abundance to share with you.

You are growing, and growing fast, but you need to speed up because time is shortening (quickenning). More will be required of you in less time in the future, so prepare yourself for that. Shed the excess time-wasting and bring yourself in (into) order - into alignment with me so we can travel together, 'joined at the hip' - two-as-one.

Seek me more. Seek my face and my presence to see (secure) what I have for you. Less laziness and more concentration on the tasks at hand. Enjoy life, but desire more the life of the Spirit. Yes, it is your spirit that is your life and it is so right that you are now focussing on your spirit-man. This is the 'man' I want to bring out into the open and develop into the person who will do my bidding and do my great exploits. This is your desire, but it requires alignment with me for it to be realised - realised in its fullest (completeness).

Bless those who don't understand you and those who shun you. Bless them as this shows that you are a 'big man' - big in my sight, not the world's. Let me continue to be your justifier as you have today. Learn to deal with people my way - out of my Spirit - but continue to be vigilant in watching and assessing others. There are those who will lead you astray, those who will want to dominate you. Don't let this happen. It's up to you to prevent this from happening. I will show you, as I have, so keep listening to me. Don't look at who they are - their ministry, their status, their spirituality - this will lead you into error. Just look to me and allow me to be your guide in these matters - it's safer that way. Your 'flesh' will get in the way if you don't and you can't (don't want to) trust your 'flesh'.

All is well my son. Keep sticking to me. Don't allow what has transpired today to cause you to falter or to be despondent. It's all in my time and in my way, so 'buck up' and live for me, and not others.

Bless you and sleep well my son.

Dad.

(Words in brackets are what I understood in my spirit immediately I was given something to write)
