

Aim to Become Supernatural

Most believers think that being supernatural is either occultic, New Age, heresy and just plain wacky.

For those of us who are moving in the supernatural, it's normal for sons. Added to that is Father's desire that we become more supernatural so we rise to the standard of Jesus of Nazareth. He was the first fully spirit-filled human and he's our prototype to model ourselves on.

Here's a message from the throne of the King telling us to become more supernatural:

“You have extraordinary opportunities to arise spiritually and develop a closer and more meaningful relationship with Me. The more the chaos, the greater need to establish peace. There is no peace apart from living and walking in the Spirit. Seek to abide in the peace that surpasses natural understanding. Strive to become supernatural.”¹

So it's not hogwash. It's the Trinity's desire that we enter into all that we can be as sons and that includes spiritual activity and conquests.

IMPORTANT: The call is to be more supernatural, not more super-spiritual. Super spirituality is a human version of the real thing – being simply and naturally supernatural, like Jesus was.

So, why supernatural? Because that's how we can properly and fully be about Father's business.

“Release yourself from all negativity so that you can begin to see through the eyes of the Spirit. It is My desire that you search for and discover the flow of the Holy Spirit in order to stay in that supernatural stream. From that place you will be able to fulfill My will and your destiny.”²

Need I say any more?
