

Fear is a Killer

This is the day that starts the rest of your life. It's a 'new day', so to speak.

Yes, it is a big weekend for you, but it's not to be seen as insurmountable. It's only a little hill - it's your perspective that matters when you look at what's coming. Come up high on my mountain and you'll definitely see a different perspective. You'll see my perspective - how I see things. You'll be surprised at how small some big things really are. Your attitude will then change - must change - so that you can approach your tasks in freedom from fear.

Fear is a killer, as you know, so work on it - work on defeating it. Total defeat is what is required, otherwise you will not be as effective as you could be - you will not reach your potential in the tasks you are given.

Look to me today as you start this new place of your life. It is glorious, so see it that way. No intrepidation should enter into your thoughts. I am in charge. 'I AM' will do it all for you. I am able and you must plug into me and draw from me so that I can.

Stretch out your hand and bring things to pass - mighty things - and don't be afraid. Everything that King David put his hand to prospered - this is your reward for years of service. This is your destiny, to operate in this realm of supply. Just TRUST. Faith activates me - activates Heaven - to operate on your behalf. Be bold; be courageous; be headstrong in focussing on your task so that fear has no place and faith is your flagship. Fly the flag of victory from your 'ship' - it will drive off all opposition. The enemy will see it at a distance and not come near. They cannot cope with sons who think victoriously. They know it is useless to engage them, even.

So rest in me - in 'I AM'. I have everything in the palm of my hands - the universe, as well as your circumstances. I don't send you to engage a pack of wolves unless you are prepared. I know when you are ready and that's when I send you. Don't even consider if you're capable or ready when opposition comes or things seem difficult. You will be able to succeed, otherwise I would not have put you in such circumstances. See me - you must see me - as benevolent. I do not want to see you crushed or defeated. You are entrusted with things, tasks and assignments that you will succeed with. I am not trying to crush you with load or with difficulty. I have assessed you and you are very capable. That's why I am releasing you into this new work. You will succeed - you have the capability. It's outcome will depend on your trust in me, not in yourself - in ME. Remember that. Remember that because it's often slipped from your memory (thoughts), which is why you allow depression [to get] a foothold. Defeat depression with trust. Trust plus enthusiasm will drive it away so you are clear to operate unhindered and in clarity. <continued in part b>
