

Things Are Escalating, Moving Forward Quickly

(Transcript from my Audio Journal)

This is my plan for you. This is the structure (structures) that I'm setting in place. Be obedient; be truthful; be observant; be knitted together. Be 'over the top' when it comes to things for me; be excessive; be without excuse. Be what I want you to be; be truly mine.

This is a matter of urgency. Time is at hand and I'm wanting you to move forward, more into the things that I have planned for you than the things that are on your mind - the things that you plan. Things are escalating, moving forward quickly and you need to have your heart connected to mine so that you hear what's going on. You see with your mind's eye, not just your spirit. I'll give you perception so that you can anticipate. I will give you your needs - I will meet them as I promised.

Go on your way in peace. Go on your way knowing that I'm with you, 'come what may'. Go forward; go upward. Come up into my mountain, into my presence, into my throne room. Talk with me; counsel with me. I give you this privilege. I give you this opportunity, a permanent opportunity, not just a one-off. This is my heart for you. You have shown yourself and proved yourself worthy of this. I don't give this away lightly. I don't give it to all who come. But 'come what may' in your life and circumstances, I am here for you. I am watching. I am standing guard up here on my high mountain, the mountain of my presence, my throne. Come up here and spend time with me; be with me. It is a greater perspective that you gain being here. A great time we will have together.

This is by no means the totality of what I have for you, but just another phase. I've been teaching you things through Ian [Clayton] that others have baulked at. These things are essential for your growth and development. I want you to become manifest as you truly are, not as a prideful thing. Not as a method to gain notoriety for yourself, to draw a crowd for yourself, but to enter into the things of my Kingdom, to be successful, because I bless you with success.

(Words in brackets are what I understood in my spirit immediately I was given something to write)
