

Become One With Me

Keep close to me my son.

Yes, the enemy is prowling around you. He wants to destroy you, but I will not allow that to happen. Keep close. Keep tightly knitted to me like a garment that clings to a person. Become one with me like a close fitting top so that we blend together as one. In this way the enemy looks and sees me because you are blended into me. You are hidden by the very action of becoming one with me. This is your hiding place - not praise and thanksgiving which 'gees' you up, encourages you and lifts your spirits.

Being one with me is your place. Be like a badge on my top that appears to belong to the top, but is separate - the two pieces make the whole.

There's safety for you in oneness. As Ian [Clayton] said, when the enemy comes after you and sees me he runs - he can't carry out his plans.

I appreciate the way you've been moving towards greater oneness with me, and also teaching others to do the same. This is an essential element of your call as a teacher and a forerunner - [i.e.] to bring my people into oneness with me. Show them. Demonstrate to them. Continue to pressure them to move in this area, for protection and life are there...

~ Continued in part B ~

(Words in square brackets are added so readers have better understanding of the content)

Laurence
22-9-2014
(www.CanberraForerunners.org)

COPYRIGHT

*This document is free to copy, republish and distribute, but only 'as is'. It is free to quote from at length.
All Canberra Forerunners' documents are licensed under Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 3.0 Unported License*