

The 4 Streams of Partial Truth

There are many ‘streams’ out there among those who profess faith in Jesus’ work to bring us back into Father’s family. These ‘streams’ are a flow of theology that the adherents stick to which defines who they are. The various Protestant denominations are an example of such streams, as are the Charismatic and Pentecostal systems. Each stream has a percentage of spiritual truth, but not all of it, even though the adherents earnestly think they have the lot.

It’s important to remember that all truth resides in The Truth himself, not theology, church dogma or the professional Christian leading the group. Truth in the Kingdom is defined as what is real, not what’s a construct of the human mind. Alternatively, it can be defined as everything that the Trinity knows. That divine knowledge is so vast, the little we think we know is infinitesimally tiny.

It has been stated that we could spend all of our existence in eternity learning the truth from the Trinity and we would know it all. I didn’t agree with that because once we are out of our human bodies and living as a spirit in a glorified body, we are plugged into the Trinity network and we have access to all their knowledge.

In regard to the here-&-now, the Kingdom is eliminating theology from sons and teaching them spiritual truth (i.e. what’s spiritually real). There is an exit of sons from the church system, which will have Grace withdrawn from it. This is what Father informed Mike Parsons in 2020:

“It is time for a shift in season for those who are establishing Heaven on Earth. The time is coming to move to grace and greater grace; but only those who know the desires of My heart will discern this change. Those still operating in the wilderness will have My grace begin to be removed from their wilderness ministries. I desire My children to come out of the wilderness of the Moses generation and enter into their inheritance, so I am going to diminish My grace from DIY path religion.”¹

The Spirit has been working since the 1980s (at least) to bring Father’s people out of religion and into the freedom of sonship². In this season, the New Ekklesia will burgeon as the numbers grow and their Kingdom knowledge expands.

Within those who came out, many re-established the church system in their homes, ‘re-badging’ them house churches. Father advised us recently that the “re-badging” of the old that we did was a mistake. What was needed was the new wineskin of an organism to hold the knowledge of the Kingdom the way he wanted it. In our ignorance and immaturity, we fell for this re-invention ‘trap’ in the 1980s, but Father wasn’t displeased with us. Instead (as I understand it now) he was pleased that we stepped out in faith to do what we knew we were to do. We have since been redirected to form Kingdom Communities in our city which function as an organism, not an organisation. As of the start of this year, we are now moving to redevelop into many of the Embassies of Heaven housing instances of New Ekklesia.

Others this century have moved further in exploring gateways Father has opened to those who had the mind and the faith to move through. Many have seen these different groups as cults, or even calling the members heretics, regarding them as having lost their way. We also belong to this conglomeration of different “leanings”. Father calls these “streams” and there are a number of them which he is fostering and planning to bring together for his purpose.

The streams of truth which are of importance at this time in Father’s plans for the Kingdom are those which will bring about the changes necessary for The Restoration of All Things to become a focus of sons. As Father told Mike Parsons:

“Son, the four streams of truth relating to the Restoration of All Things will need to be expanded upon *and unified into what will become the foundational governmental understanding for restoration.”*³

He also told Mike Parsons in 2020 of the importance of these streams and that he was to:

*“[R]eveal the 4 streams of partial truth that are becoming one river of true reality and abundant life to fill the Earth with My glory once again.”*⁴

Notice that these 4 streams only possess part of the truth, in that they know only a portion of spiritual reality required for the effective implementation of The Restoration of All Things. They all ascent to the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth, but their forerunners have been led to focus on one specific area of importance. When brought together by appropriate teaching, these streams will have the truth that's required to bring about these massive changes on the Earth. What they do have in common (outside of the Kingdom and sonship) is belief in the truth of 'The Restoration of All Things'.

Father outlined more about these 4 streams to Mike during 2020:

*“Son, the four streams of truth relating to the restoration of all things will need to be expanded upon... Realised Eschatology, Christian Universalism, Heavenly Governmental Sonship and Energy frequency healing are the four legs to the chair but if you take one away, the chair cannot function. These 4 streams are flowing from different directions towards the same unified goal. Legislate for this to continue and for the forerunners in each stream to begin to resonate together.”*⁵

Those 4 streams are these:

1. Realised Eschatology – These are those who hold to the understanding “that the eschatological passages in the New Testament do not refer to the future, but instead refer to the ministry of Jesus and his lasting legacy. Eschatology is therefore not the end of the world but its rebirth instituted by Jesus and continued by his disciples, a historical (rather than trans-historical) phenomenon.”⁶ Preterist⁷ and Historical Eschatologies fit basically into this category, although there are variations within them which causes some people to think outside of Realised Eschatology.
2. Christian Universalism – This is the belief “focused around the doctrine of universal reconciliation – the view that all human beings will ultimately be saved and restored to a right relationship with God. Christian universalism and the belief or hope in the universal reconciliation through Christ can even be understood as synonyms...Christians from a diversity of denominations and traditions believe in the tenets of Christian universalism, such as the reality of an afterlife without the possibility of eternal punishment in hell.”⁸
3. Heavenly Governmental Sonship – These are sons who are already operating in the role we were intended to have at creation. They are planet-managers ruling out of Heaven onto the face of the Earth. “[G]race is coming to little groups scattered all over the globe. Governmental hubs are being birthed again now, in living rooms, in IHOPs (houses of prayer), in Spirit led churches, in the office, in the secret place...The faithful saints are fully involved in the government of Heaven, completing the acts written in the ‘Books of Destiny’ (Psalms 139:16). They are the Ecclesia in Heaven, working with the Ecclesia of Earth, together as one family.”⁹
4. Energy Frequency Healing – This is part of the understanding that modern ‘Christian mystics’ have.¹⁰ “As we drink deeper and deeper of the union we have with the Divine Essence, beautiful-amazing things will happen to the body. The frequency of our bodies will shift and we will find we are not "really from here", we are "not of this world"¹¹ This will cause "A planet-wide shift into a higher frequency, a higher dimension, touching everyone."¹² This will bring healing to creation as part of The Restoration of All Things. How does it work? "I asked [Jesus] how he walked on water. He said He could have done it by hovering over it but He didn't. "I was able to control the vibration of the water and it became solid when I put my feet on it". That gave me the understanding that we can learn how to control the vibration, the frequency of matter, because everything is just energy vibrating at a particular frequency. He showed me lots of miracles and how He did them."¹³

Initially there were 3 streams that Father talked to Mike about. At that time Father had bulked together Heavenly Governmental Sonship and Energy Frequency Healing within the heading of Mystics. The reason for that was probably because mystics were being trained by Father as they learned to inhabit Heaven, with some being led to focus on frequencies and others on apostolic governance. These would eventually merge as they came to recognise and accept the truth in the other streams. In a conversation with Father Mike was told that:

"there are three streams coming together. At present, there are a handful of people who flow with two of those streams, and even fewer who embrace all three. For now, each is mostly blind to the direction that the others are coming from but they will merge in the flow of the restoration of all things.

- The Christian Universalists are travelling towards both a realised eschatology and an open heaven mystical flow.
- The Mystics are travelling towards a realised eschatology and universal restoration.
- *The Realised Eschatologists are travelling towards the mystical and the restoration of all things position."*¹⁴

These streams will merge to form into a unified whole which will be a powerful, mighty 'river' which will propel sons down the path of restoration:

*"The 4 streams of thought that are converging into one mighty river are: Mystic Sonship, Realised Eschatology, Universal Reconciliation, Energy Frequency Healing"*¹⁵

It is the forerunners who Father has installed in these 4 streams who have been challenging the errors of the Christian religion to bring truth to the fore, freeing more believers to become sons who rely only on hearing from Heaven.

*"The scandal of religion is being challenged by those forerunners who have been hidden within the various streams but are now coming out of obscurity to challenge the deceptions of the systems which have kept My children from knowing Me and knowing the fullness of their destinies. It is time for the deceptions to be exposed, so that My children can be free from the bondages that have kept them from their true relationship with Me as Father and their true identity as sons."*¹⁶

There you have it. The Restoration of All Things is about to "break forth" on the scene and nothing will be the same again.

The "new normal" won't be what politicians and the Elite have been telling us.

IMPORTANT: Although I've quoted quite a lot from what Father has told Mike Parsons, we have been travelling independently of Mike in the direction of these 4 streams over the past 5 year as Father has lead us and taught us. We have also assented to 'The Restoration of All Things' (i.e. aligned with Heaven on that). We are being prepared to be part of the team who is bringing restoration to Earth & the cosmos.
