

What Are Embassies of Heaven

For about 10-15 years now there has been talk among spiritually-minded people of safe places for Father's people to be located as the world system continues to disintegrate and chaos eventually takes its place. Some believers talk about "cities of refuge"¹, while others refer to "Goshen properties" or "Goshen cities". 'Goshen' get its name from the area of northern Egypt where the Israelites lived and were kept protected from the plagues sent against Pharaoh. Others have talked about "sanctuary cities" which are derived from the same provisions for personal safety that were set up in Israel under the Torah.

From a heavenly direction, Father has begun talking to Mike Parsons about "Embassies of Heaven"² as a place of safety. While sons don't need to live under any fear because they come under the government of Heaven, these embassies add an extra dimension to the impact of the Kingdom on Earth where Heaven's government brings protection.

An embassy is where an ambassador lives and works. As we are ambassadors of Heaven³, representing Heaven (The Kingdom of God), so, any piece of territory we own or live in comes under the spiritual laws of Heaven which supersede the natural and civic laws of Earth. What does that mean?

*"We will outwork that heavenly government through our own lives: firstly as individuals but also then corporately, with others who are called to a particular place, territory, region, people group or other sphere of influence. So those who share a particular mandate, blueprint, calling or destiny will begin to build relationally together, seeking to establish things 'on earth as it is in heaven' together and to represent heaven on earth together."*⁴

Although we are all ambassadors who represent the King, we are also kings in our own right. We reign over our personal territory and those who inhabit it. Of course, we need to be trained to become a properly functioning king because we don't know how to be one for the purposes of the Kingdom. It's actually presumption to begin operating as a king without being trained by our Sovereign, just because the Bible says we are royalty.

Similarly, we are capable of operating as oracles and legislators for Heaven, but that also takes training, as well as commissioning and anointing. The two functions of oracles and legislators have a wider impact than our personal kingship, so we can't 'jump in' and think we have the authority to do what we like with these functions either.

Embassies of Heaven will operate through the authority of kingship, legislation and oracle release. However, they will function primarily as an organic structure for the release of Heaven onto the Earth – as in heaven, so on Earth. These aren't an organisation, but rather a corporate organism.

This embassy concept is not referring to physical entities, buildings or cities. The key to the operation of these embassies is relationships between like-minded sons. These members release the River of Life from Heaven to those around them through the King's presence which they carry 24/7. They also carry Father's heart and express it in creative ways so that others see what he is really like and how a relationship with him is a wonderful thing to be part of.

'Embassies' are about real relationships and real connections between sons who have the same blueprint from Heaven and a specific mandate to achieve a specific purpose. These attributes all combine to form the foundation for heavenly government to operate through the embassy.

Using Kingdom terms, rather than church 'speak', and operating differently to the church system doesn't constitute the existence of an Embassy of Heaven. These entities need to be created by the Spirit, not by people from their own initiative. A clear mandate from Heaven is needed for 'embassies' to be instigated, and when it does begin to function properly, it will not look like anything that is recognisable from the church system. To achieve this overhaul, deconstruction of what we know as ‘church’ is absolutely required.

Therefore, genuine Embassies of Heaven will reflect more of Heaven and they will be very much less earthly. As Father said to Mike Parsons:

“Nothing that comes from following the DIY tree will be restored, because it was never My intention from the beginning. Independence from relationship with Me cannot, and never will, produce fruit; and all that has been produced will not be restored. The greatest achievements in the name of mankind will end in the same way as the tower of Babel: in abject failure. Those places on Earth that represent Me as Embassies of Heaven will be true demonstrations of what it is possible to achieve by walking the path with Me and drawing from the inexhaustible supply of the tree of life. I will restore all the abilities I intended My children to have, as seen in My Son, and greater, to those who will establish Embassies of Heaven on Earth as sons of the living God. When My children arise into sonship so will their abilities also ascend and increase as they mature in Heaven and on Earth. I will release the full capacity of the expanded consciousness of the mind of Christ to those who ascend in maturity; then creation will truly observe the light of sonship revealed. When My children give up their independence and choose to walk with Me, the sons of God will be unveiled and creation will be restored to the freedom of their glorious rising.”⁵

For all this to take place, the Joshua Generation must increase in number and in maturity so they can establish new order ekklesia and Embassies of Heaven which house them.⁶ This maturity requires deprogramming from religion and reprogramming in the knowledge and principles of the Kingdom.

Deconstruction of the Church is vital if My children are going to establish the true new order Ekklesia on earth as it is in heaven. The pillars that hold up the construct of what church is and what church does and how church gathers must be destroyed so that a true representation of heavenly relational storehouses can become embassies of heaven on the earth. Ask why, what, how, when, where, who for the Ekklesia; and outwork the mandate through a fresh expression of the blueprint. Why? What is the clear reason, the primary reason and the secondary reasons for being? What are the mandated purposes, the primary purposes and secondary purposes for existing? How are those reasons and purposes going to be fulfilled and outworked? When are you going to be and do the why, what and how? Where are you going to be and do the why, what and how? Who are you going to involve in the why, what and how?⁷

This time in history is a time of great opportunity, even while there is increasing disadvantage. Sons will need to rise up to the challenge, embracing their destiny, as they are shown how and when they are to establish Embassies of Heaven. “The storehouses need to be ready to receive, mentor and release the harvest that is coming”⁸. Greater grace will be required, and will be released, so this can be achieved.⁹
