

The Beginning is the End and the End is the Beginning

[The following briefing concerning the current spiritual war was given to me by our King]

1. It's all in the news as I said it would be to others, but they have not listened to me. I have given warning, but they have not heeded.
2. For some it's the end of the road. For others it's the beginning.
3. The beginning is the end and the end is the beginning. Yes, this is a conundrum and one that needs to be unravelled and understood. It is a spiritual mandate on people's lives which they must adhere to so that they move forward.
4. Yes, these are dark days, but my people will shine - like the brightness of the sun. I can raise them to great heights of glory so that the glory can be seen in the Earth. This is my earnest desire for them (my people) to rise like this, to shine like never before, to be that light that I intended my church to be.
5. I have given warning. I have given advice, but who listens? There are a few, a remnant few, who are moving with me at my command. They are listening and obeying. They are hoping against hope that others will follow them as they lead into new areas of operation. The few are brave. They are lights that cannot be dimmed. They are my end-time people of the covenant. These are they that were spoken of by the prophets of old and the prophets of today. A great and mighty people, though few in number. They are my mould, my model, because others will follow. Others will join with them in a crescendo that leads to my return.
6. Keep up this good work. Keep up the pressure on yourselves to maintain purity and alignment with me.
7. Listen clearly - ever more clearly - above the noise and clatter of the world around you. Hear crystal clear so that the traps of the enemy can be avoided, so that you can enter into all I have prepared for you.
8. Clear, undivided thinking is required in these Last Days.
9. The enemy's traps are everywhere, like the potholes in the road that are not easily seen and avoided at speed. Be careful. Be very careful.
10. These days of high speed travel will result in many being dispersed around the nations that would have otherwise been delayed. This speed is tragic for some and elevation (elation) for others.
11. Hear me and hear me good.

(Words in brackets are what I understood in my spirit immediately I was given something to write)
