

It's All About The Heart

Thank you for your love. It's so great to receive it from you in a genuine way. Your genuineness is appropriated in our relationship, as it's all about the heart and being open and honest - not hiding anything.

It's good to see you are working on dealing with those hidden things - the things you don't openly display or say. This is key to your survival in the days ahead as darkness in any form is an access point for the enemy to work on you and through you. Watch how you speak also, as you learnt the other night. Constantly check what you are about to say and your heart attitude in expressing it. This is vital you understand this.

My heart cannot be conveyed [to others] through your pain and your soulish feelings. Get close to me and feel my heart so you can express it to others. It must ooze out of you - not some of the time, but all of the time. See to it that you learn this and appropriate it as part of the way you interact with others....

(part B taken from here because of its important)

...Love me my son. Love me with all your heart and soul. Love me more than you already do. Love me 'til it hurts to be apart in any way. Desire me as you've never desired anything before. That's it - more than any woman or position or possession. I am your Beloved and you are my beloved. Live like it's a fact and move forward, deeper in me.

I love you.
