

Foundations For Understanding Our Kingship

We have already received a revelation¹ and a message from Father² concerning our function as kings, and we'll continue to receive many more. However, these will not seem to be important or relevant unless we understand the reason why we are king's. It's not because the Bible "says" we are royalty, there's a reason why we are and that needs to be correctly understood.

The basic reason for our kingship is this: Adam was created to rule Earth as Father's son. This would have been inherited by his descendants.

A ruler is a king, so Adam was a king who was rightfully installed by our Creator. However, he lost that role when he agreed with Ezer and submitted to the instructions of the Nachash in the garden. From that time on, Satan was the default ruler of the planet, because he usurped it when he got Adam to do what he wanted. Adam should have operated as the planet's ruler and made a sovereign choice that was in line with heaven.

But, it didn't end there with our loss of rulership. Jesus came and took back the kingship, as a genuine man, because a man lost it, and was inaugurated as the King of Kings as a result. King Jesus then made a way for us 'fallen' beings to be restored to what we were before The Fall. This occurred with each of us when our true self, our spirit, was regenerated when we were spiritually reborn. Our true self is now back where Adam was, being rightly aligned with Father, sanctified³ and consecrated⁴. We are now in the place where we were always intended to be, as pure sons of perfectly created Adam.

Jesus restored to us all our original creation roles:

- Rulership
- Dominion
- Planet managing
- Creation's overseers

IMPORTANT: To get a grip on this audacious concept, which religion baulks at, listen to Myles Munroe carefully articulate our role of operating in dominion as leaders of life on Earth –
