

More on this Current Time in the Kingdom

(March 2021)

Following on from the prophetic insight I was given concerning the current season we are in,¹ a time when Forerunners are leading the vanguard for the restoration of all things, this is an update. More information is being received to cement this time in our understanding and to equip us with the knowledge we need to move forward without deviation. There will be glory rising alongside the rise of darkness, so we must focus on where we are going and make sure we are aligning with Heaven every step of the way. Read on!

KINGDOM MESSAGES

Marsha Burns

(★prophetic downloads recorded in March 2021)

“I am well aware that you have been in the doldrums and that it has been more difficult to think and be aware of the nuances in your surroundings. This phase of what seems to be sleep-walking will soon be a thing of the past as you begin to awaken. Know that you are not alone and that many are enduring a similar annoyance. Rest in the hope of better things.”²

“You are still in a time of transition between that which is coming to a close and that which is just ahead. There will be a very distinct difference between where you have been and where you are going. You are in the process of ascending to a higher level of natural experience and spiritual existence. Letting go of the past is vital to your freedom in moving ahead. Endeavor to stay clear and clean so that you can hear My voice and discern My leading.”³

“The windows of heaven are open to pour out a greater measure of My Spirit on those who are hungry for heightened spiritual clarity and gifting. It is there to be received by those who have a desire to grow and produce the fruit of living and walking in the Spirit. Position yourself and set your heart to burst forth with renewed desire and vitality.”⁴

“You are called as My children to reap the benefits that I have set forth in My word. For, it will be given to those who abide in My kingdom, which will manifest in your life in a fresh way. From this point on make a determination that you can be what I have called you to be. You can do what I have said you can do. You can come higher into the realm of the Spirit and be more effective. You can see My power move in your life, which will cause your life to become inspired. Your journey into faith can be exciting and the glory of the kingdom will be demonstrated.”⁵

Ana Werner

(★ extract from a prophetic article published on 17-3-2021)

“We are now in a season of restructuring and reorganization. What you perceived to be thrust upon you is actually the hand of the Lord at work in your life. He is bringing new order and setting things in place for the future.

In a vision, I saw the Lord restoring the foundation of a house. He looked at it and pointed out cracks that were in the very sides and bottom. I watched as the Lord recemented and filled in the cracks.

For many of us, the Lord is revealing areas in our lives, workplace, ministries and so forth that need to be addressed, healed and corrected. This time of correction, although not always pleasant, is so good for heart issues to be addressed. If you could imagine a chess game, God is setting everything into place for what is to come...

As restructuring right now is in motion, there will be many locational shifts. I saw many people regionally being moved and relocated in this very season.

This also will be a great time of reevaluation. What is your core message? What is the core thing you will stand on? Firmly plant your feet and say, "I will not be compromised in this area."

To navigate through this season, it is imperative to keep your eyes on Jesus...

He will guide you and help you through what feels messy right now. "Not around it, but through it," I hear Him say.”⁶

Jennifer LeClaire

(★ extract from a prophetic article published on 12-3-2021)

“Clearly, we’re in a new era. Some months ago, the Holy Spirit started showing me something about this new era—the age of miracles...

We’re not in the midst of it yet, but we’re entering into it. We’ve been authorized to walk in signs, wonders and miracles and some are. But the Holy Spirit is inviting the hungry to walk through a new era door into ageless, timeless miracles. Wonder-working power is readily available now, but many will have to break through their risk threshold to walk in it...

God is raising up miracle workers in the spirit of Elijah and Elisha that will work miracles of provision in times of famine. With talk of food supply chains being disrupted, this could be a necessary flow. Both Elijah, Elisha and Jesus multiplied food or cleansed food that was corrupted. There was a widow down to her last bit of flour and oil when the Lord led Elijah straight to her doorstep...

The reality is, you don’t have to be a Moses, Elijah, or a Paul to work miracles. That’s never been the case. In this age of miracles, all you need is faith to step out and see the wonder working power of the Lord. Are you ready to enter the age of miracles? Get equipped. Build yourself up in your most holy faith. Step out and take a risk.”⁷

Rick Joyner

(★ A few notes about his prophetic vision which was updated and republished in 2013)

“Jesus said, “The harvest is the end of the age”⁸. Between now and the end of the age more people will come to know Jesus than have from Pentecost until this time. Before the end, every village in every nation will have had the gospel preached to them. Every person living will hear His name. The knowledge of the Lord will cover the earth as the waters cover the sea, and many whole cities and some entire nations will be converted to Him.

The magnitude of what is coming cannot be measured by anything that has ever happened before; even the cosmos itself will be electrified with its energy. More than a tithe of all the people who have ever lived, more than one billion souls, will call upon His name in true commitment resulting in true conversion.

This harvest will exceed every previous outpouring of the Spirit in one profound way—Jesus will be preached as Lord and not just Savior. During this harvest, the gospel will change from “Come and be saved”, to “Bow the knee, He is the King!” This is the seventh and last trumpet, or message, to be preached. This message will not come in word only, but in power and unprecedented demonstrations of the Spirit.

Another aspect to the harvest at the end of the age is the reaping of evil. A harvest is the reaping of everything that has been sown, both good and evil. The evil that was sown in man will also come to fruition during this time. While the “wheat” is being gathered, the “tares” will also be gathered into bundles or unified. However, the gathering of the tares is actually meant to aid the gathering of the wheat.

The separation and distinction between the two seeds will become increasingly visible in the days to come...

The Lord has prepared a ministry for this last day that will be the marvel of men and angels. These will not be self-seeking or self-promoting, and most of them will remain unknown to the world and to much of the church. Their works and preaching will stir nations, but many will fade into the crowd and disappear before anyone even knows who they are.

Many of the most powerful apostles and prophets will remain nameless and faceless to the public. These have no desire to build major ministries and will not covet fame and fortune. They are “spiritual celibates;” they will not rape the bride, the church. Just as a natural eunuch is given entirely to preparing the bride for the king, and has no desire for her as he is not even able, these will be completely given to preparing the church for her King. Their whole purpose is to see the King’s joy because they are truly His friends. These will follow Him wherever He goes.

While many of their peers have been seeking exposure and promotion for their ministries, these have been quietly preparing themselves just as Jesus did for His first thirty years. While others are advancing in ministry, many of these have been retreating. While others have been building up, these have been digging down, trying to strengthen their foundations and deepen their roots. Though not in rebellion, and often grieving over it, these are usually out of harmony with much of the church.”⁹

Mandy Woodhouse

(★ prophetic vision and message published on 15-3-2021)

“I saw a picture of a map of the world. There was a great darkness spreading across the map, and there were pockets of light and glory across the globe, in ALL NATIONS, which functioned like oil and water – they could not mix, and the pockets of glory STOOD OUT across the map, untouched by the darkness and ready to spread rapidly against the forces of the enemy.

I asked the Lord specifically about Australia, the country where I live. I then saw a picture of Australia literally popping up off the map, beginning to shine brighter and brighter as it lifted up OUT OF THE DARKNESS.

8 – Matthew 13:39

9 – Location 371 [kindle edition]

*I hear the Lord say, "The born-again in Australia will find that they CAN'T HELP BUT SHINE!" Australia is about to shine a bright light against the canopy of darkness that has tried to cover the nations. Australia is rising in this new era to shine for Jesus like never before!"*¹⁰

Laurence Smart

(★ prophetic message received and journalled on 22-9-2014 but discovered on 26-3-2021)

"In the future, [the] place of rest and oneness with me will be the only place of safety and operation. Dark clouds are forming and my people need to move more quickly into the things they have been shown to do. Like a clap of thunder, which instantly sounds, so will be the changes in these last days. They will not build – they will not be evident. There will be no milestones for those watching to count down to events and circumstances – they will appear as if from nowhere.

"Be prepared" is the motto for these last days.

I will prepare you. I will direct you, but you must listen and enact what you've been shown. There's no delay. There's no time to delay. Learn to hear my voice and obey. Compliance is the key – the key to safety and advancement. The time is coming when 'dilly-dalliers' will be left behind and be 'food' for the enemy. Stragglers will not survive. They will be taken out quite easily – to their own astonishment. Business as usual will not work any more.

Focus. Focus on me. I am the one orchestrating the events of these days, so listening to men and searching the scriptures is not the key – follow me. Hear my voice and obey. I can't make it any more plain than that – hear and obey. But to do that, you have to listen – listen intently, listen purposefully. Long to hear my voice, not just for consolation and love, but for offensive actions. Too many have discovered the joy of hearing my voice, but they have been lulled into a state of inaction by my love.

Be stirred up. Be encouraged by my voice to move into action. Passivity is 'death' in these last days. My voice is a voice of action and when I speak, action is required – action is the natural follow-on. Do you hear that? Do you really hear that? Are you wanting to advance? Or are you wanting to be comfortable? Remember the words concerning my return in relation to Noah's day – peace, peace. Safety lulled the people into a place of acquiescence. No!

In these last days, my voice is the voice of the Commander-in-Chief of the army of the Kingdom. Those who are my people are in that army and they must recognise this as so. When I speak, it is for a purpose. I speak as a trumpet to herald, to command, and I expect obedience. This is your duty – your loving duty. Hear and obey. This is for your own good, as well as for the good of the Kingdom's advancement. Become militaristic in your thinking – in your attitude. You must see that you are part of my spiritual army and operate tactically with my orders.

This is my message to you my people – my loved ones. Hear the voice of your beloved, but hear also the voice of your general. We are at war. Conditions of war are in place, so act like you know this and stop seeking your own purposes, pleasures and desires. How can an army achieve the will of the general if they all go their own way, doing what they think is best. Move as one – at my command and you will see things happen like you've never seen before. You will see victory for me and for yourself.

Hear me, my people. Hear me. Don't stop your ears. Don't fill your ears with other sounds so that my voice is filtered out. This is disastrous. This is monumentally disastrous. Learn to hear me clearly and then obey as directed. Obey in the time-frames that I give you. Be circumspect about it. Be sensible and mature in carrying out my commands.

*This is all for the best. All for the good. Not for your pleasure, but for the good of the Kingdom. Father's plans will succeed, but we must move with one heart and mind to do this."*¹¹

“Hear Me and be willing to line up in accordance with that which I speak. You are learning and growing, and you must allow faith to arise to new levels within you. For it is by faith that you shall survive the times. It is by faith that you will prosper in hard times that are filled with great tragedy and dire news. Even in difficult seasons you will rise up in faith and praise Me. Trust Me to bring you through all things to a position of victory.”¹²

Ron McGatlin

(★extract from an article published on 25-3-2021)

“God’s created design for the earth and all that is on it is perfect. His design is fixed and only God can successfully change it. Crossing the lines of God’s design always causes bad things to happen in life.

Good life in this world comes from walking in alignment with the design of God for all things. Bad life always comes from walking in misalignment of the design of God for all things.

It is an extreme understatement to say that the design of all things is very complex. It is beyond the understanding of the minds of human beings to fully understand how all things work together in order. A misalignment or malfunction of one small part can affect to some degree much or all of the whole order of things now and in the future.

God’s design brings all things into proper and peaceful balance even unto the most minute detail for the final results of all things in the order of God’s design.

We can each think of our life as a sheet of paper on which our life is to be written. Like a sheet of paper, it can be plain or it can be ruled by lines. The lines rule the page or life by establishing guide lines or laws of order regarding that which is to be written on our life page. Every human being is unique, yet all have many similarities that define them as a person.

Generationally from Adam a general core misalignment occurred that has been a factor in all life since.

In the beginning, the one rule in Adam’s perfect life in the garden was to always remain connected with God to receive guidance from God. Partaking of the fruit of the tree of life was life leadership of guidance and empowerment daily directly from God. Adam was to not partake of the fruit of the tree of knowledge. To partake of the fruit of the tree of “knowledge” is to decide by his own understanding apart from God what is good and what is bad.

Life was perfect for Adam with only the one line written on the paper of His life. God provided in personal communication with Adam all that he needed to fulfill the multitude of decisions and actions to maintain the perfect balance of all things in life. Adam did not need to stress trying to figure out what and how to make all things work together in alignment. The One who made the whole system of creation was with him daily to guide and empower.

When Adam crossed the line breaking the covenant with God and taking control of His own life apart from God, his life was drastically changed...

Untold numbers of kings and kingdoms, tribes and chiefs, religions and leaders, nations and presidents, prime ministers, congresses, parliaments, and many other forms of law makers and enforcers have made the laws or rules to govern as much of the world as they could conquer and occupy.

12 – Bill Burns “The Trumpet” (28-3-2021) www.ft111.com/trumpet2021.htm

Each of the ruling governments established the lines of the page of the tribe, city, or nation that they ruled. The lines had to be either willingly or forcefully written and obeyed on all of the life pages of all the citizens. There was some small amount of room between the major lines provided by the ruling government for the individual people to make minor decisions in their own lives. The greater the width between the lines of the governments, the more personal freedom the people could experience.

Keep in mind that ALL OF THIS COMPLEXITY OF RULES EXISTS BECAUSE MANKIND CONTINUES TO CHOOSE TO NOT YIELD TO THE ONE TRUE GOD AND HIS KINGDOM TO RECEIVE HIS SPIRIT GUIDANCE AND EMPOWERMENT.

You can readily see that the godless elite leadership of the fallen world order are certain within themselves that their humanistic one world government would be the answer to the warring strife-filled world of multitudes of nations and tribes. To their natural godless minds, a powerful elite group heading up the government of the entire world without God would bring world peace and better life to planet earth.

The manmade counterfeit “one world government” can never really work. It would produce the greatest amount of strife and tyranny ever in the world. The most pain, suffering, extreme poverty, death, and sorrow ever experienced in this world would be the result of this satanic effort to eliminate God from this world...

The true one world government is the rightful King of this world from heaven on earth in His mighty army of mature sons and daughters. The army of God coupled with the myriads of powerful angels roaring from heaven with holy fire to remove all who will not turn to God and to redeem and restore the world. The great fire of God upon the world is not destroying the planet but destroying everything on it that is not from God.

This is our call to prepare to RIDE WITH HIM to reclaim the kingdoms of this world for the kingdom of God on earth as it is in heaven. Do not delay, and do not look back or to the side. Fully turn your life now and throw aside every idol and trophy of the false life of lukewarm religion or worldly desires for stuff and things. The world is before us and some will trade it for a “bowl of porridge” to satisfy their base appetite for the things of the fallen world.”¹³
