

Outward Appearances Are Irrelevant For Sons

The world system keeps pulling us into it's methods and practices, which we already know. We may be vigilant about keeping out a lot of worldly 'stuff', but a lot seeps in unnoticed. For instance, we may have adopted political correctness, environmental activism, veganism, socialism, etc., without checking to see if they are compatible in the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth.

This article is just a reminder that it's the heart and the spirit of a person that matters in the Kingdom, not outward appearances or abilities. We may have missed this point and allowed what we see of people to be what we think matters. Here's our King highlighting our need to align with him in this matter:

*"It is time to become aware of your unconscious bias. Pay attention to thoughts that just pop up that categorize people and assign a value either above or below where you think you are. My love is the same for all people regardless of race, gender or stature. I do not look at your outward appearance or worldly achievements, I only see your spirit and your heart."*¹
