

Understanding ‘The Restoration of All Things’

‘The Restoration of All Things’ means that the effects of ‘The Fall’ are totally eliminated and the Creator’s creation is functioning as it was intended. There is great opposition to the notion among Christians. The main opposition is because there’s only one verse in the whole of the Bible which directly refers to it.<sup>3</sup> However, the source of all knowledge is The Truth himself, not the Bible, especially when it comes to the plans of the Trinity. They have planned and have begun implementing this process for this magnificent restoration. It’s only in it’s embryonic stage at present, but it will gain momentum over time and escalate in a way that can’t be stopped.

So, what do we need to know about ‘The Restoration of All Things’? A great deal because it’s a new paradigm and very few have sourced information from the Trinity to get an understanding. Here’s some points from what Father informed Mike Parsons about this in 2020:

- We’ve only seen ‘the tip of the iceberg’ of The Restoration of All Things.
- The shift in focus for sons in the next season of the Kingdom, from justice to the grace that’s being released exponentially, will see The Restoration of All Things fully unveiled.
- Nothing that people have created through the DIY<sup>4</sup> tree will be restored. That’s because it was never Father’s intention for it to be done.
- Once everything has been restored, even the greatest human achievements will have ended in abject failure, just like the tower of Babel.
- Father will restore the abilities he intended his sons to have, as seen in Jesus of Nazareth (and even greater ones).
- When Father’s children give up their independence and choose to walk with him as sons, they will be unveiled in their glory, and creation will be restored to the freedom that they have.
- Life won’t be living ‘under an open Heaven’, but it will be living on the Earth like it is in Heaven.
- Embassies of Heaven, where sons fellowship as Heaven’s ambassadors, won’t be subject to the curses of the present-day corrupted creation but under the dynamic of paradise restored.
- For these, there will be perfect weather conditions, perfect growing conditions, with the elements and the atmosphere fully co-operating.
- Creation will be restored to “the oneness and limitlessness of the freedom of sonship in restored paradise”.<sup>5</sup>
- There will be opposition to the message of The Restoration of All Things. However, that will give greater opportunity to bring it to the attention of Father’s children because controversy drives people to seek Heaven for revelation.
- Sons are to always act with respect and honour towards those who dishonour them. They are to demonstrate love to those who place themselves in the position enemies of the restoration message.
- “I AM is calling My children to grow up, take responsibility for creation's groaning in darkness, and be the light of love and true freedom.”<sup>6</sup>

- “It is only My grace that can divinely empower My children to shine love's light to set My children and creation free from its deceived state by revealing the true nature of My character that has been assassinated by religion.”<sup>7</sup>
- Creation will respond to love's light that the glorious sons will exhibit, which will set it free from bondage to corruption and release it into the freedom of the glory of the sons.
- A great season of grace is coming for those ambassadorial sons who embrace their responsibility for The Restoration of All Things.
- Restoration is the return to Father's original design and intention – i.e. oneness expressed in diversity and harmonious symbiosis.
- “All of creation will respond to mature sonship but the limitations and restrictions of human consciousness must be deconstructed and expanded to engage new levels of the divine reality.”<sup>8</sup>
- The restoration of all things includes all of creation, not just Earth and humans.
- “I am within all things as the frequency of light and life; and all things exist within the circle of Our being. When everything was but a thought and desire in Our collective mind, it was complete and alive, energised in Our eternal now existence. Everything has Our frequency vibrating within it; at the core of every particle, element and molecule is Our grace, the divine energy. There is nothing that is inanimate from Our perspective because it exists within Us and We are within it.”<sup>9</sup>
- “Our design for creation was birthed from Our precepts and it is fundamentally relational, as We are. Creation in all it's manifoldness was designed to be in glorious harmony in the beautiful simplicity of love.”<sup>10</sup>

There will be a great deal more on this topic in the future as it's front & centre of Heaven's plans
