

Religion & Legalism Must Go

I have been waiting for you to return to journalling with me. It's essential for you. Keep doing it as it's one of my methods of communicating with you. It's good you're recording what I say for reference and to pass on to others.

Today is a 'big' day. Things are speeding up and coming to a crescendo. Doors are opening everywhere for my people to go through like never before.

My return is imminent, so keep focused and do not deviate from the path that I have you on.

Yes, you do need to understand End Times and you do need to understand about my body and blood.

Firstly, my blood was shed for all mankind to release them from the bondage of false religion. I say, "false", as religion is not the way to go in my New Covenant. It restricts you and does not allow you to enter into my heart and to work out of that place.

Religion is a fake - it mimics what man thinks will please me. DO NOT get involved again in religion as it is a bondage, a yoke around you that you can't escape. I have released you from it, as you asked and desired. See to it that it doesn't return in any shape or form. Watch. Watch out as the religious spirits are pawing around you, enticing you back. DO NOT return. Be strong my son and resist. We have much to do together and that means you must be free of religion.

Yes, legalism must go as well. Legalism is like a set of handcuffs - they bind you and take away your freedom. You cannot do what you need to do under legalism as your 'hands are tied'. My work will not proceed from your hand as I work through you if there is any legalism. Get rid of it all. There's still some present in your life: I will show it to you.

You are doing a good job tidying yourself up, eliminating what is not of me. However, there's still a long way to go. I still have much refining to do. Yield to my hand and you will make it through all the processes I must undertake in you. There's 'light at the end of the tunnel' in this, so don't give up on it. Keep your heart supple towards me so I can shape it. I've done much already, but there's more to do.

Don't give up. Don't be disappointed in me or in others. All in good time, my son. My plans for you are great, so "relax and enjoy the ride", as I have said many times to you.

(personal information concerning others was removed here for privacy reasons)

It's the Sabbath rest in me that you must seek. Let me rest and refresh you for the work ahead is tiresome for your body. I will keep you alert and on track if you have your sabbatical in me. Rest and be restored, my son. There's value in resting, despite the busyness.

I have much to do through you, so listen to me clearly, even to my "still small voice" that's hard to hear. I often speak to you this way, so don't miss it...!

Be blessed my son as I walk you through each day, together and loving it that way.

Laurence
