

It's a Time of Elevation

As we contemplate our kingship, as we are being trained in that area, it is important that we approach prophetic messages with that in mind. We will not allow the Spirit to point to the kingship content of these messages from heaven unless we are sure we are being reprogrammed to be kings. We'll miss what he's wanting us to receive from Father and it'll restrict the pace of our retraining.

There has been a tendency for those of us who have come out of the Power Gospel to see messages about power and authority as more of that misdirected stuff. However, we must discern each message as a whole, to get a sense of its genuine source, and then to allow the Spirit to deposit in our spirit what we need to know from it about our kingship. If we reject our kingship and everything related to power and authority (reserving it for the next age) we will discount ourselves from rising up as Father manifests his sons in the times ahead of us.

As a challenge, see what you get from the following prophetic article:

“Recently, as I was in the Orlando area, the Lord caught me up in an open vision during one of our drives. He showed me a glorious, golden throne rising up, out from the swampy waters of Florida.

The Lord began speaking to me, saying that there were many seats, or thrones of power, rising up out from the waters of the earth for such a time as this.

In my vision, this throne was immersed within these waters, hidden and covered by the elements of the lake. It was not visible, and it was unseen to the common sight. It was hidden for a purpose, and it was underneath the waters for a set reason.

This seat suddenly began to rise out of the waters with golden, glorious, electric, shimmering power as it was being elevated by the hand of the Lord. This throne rising out from the depths, represents the seat of promotion that many are receiving in this season. Because you were humble, humbled and went low before the Lord, the Father is lifting you up from being deep down below, drowned and covered in the waters of the earth...

This is your season of elevation. You're coming out of the place of hiding to revelation. You're coming out from the place of obscurity into great honor. The Lord is manifesting the sons of God in this hour.

There is a seat that the Lord has reserved for you and all of heaven is waiting for you to take your place...

Stop waiting and staring at this beautiful phenomenon in doubt and/or in awe, but go ahead and go forth and take your seat of power, favor and authority of kingdom rule and reign. If you do not take your place, the seat will unfortunately be vacant for unwanted stragglers and strangers.

Passive Christianity is the last thing we need right now. In fact, passive believers are futile to the faith and is a smearing offense to our God...

There is a repositioning taking place, and we believers must learn to conquer in and for the expansion of our seat of authority.”¹
