

PROPHETIC JOURNAL ENTRY: Some Want to Eliminate You

My son it's been a long time since you've journalled with me. I missed you doing this. Don't stop. I have lots to inform you, so keep in touch this way. Sure, we communicate spirit-to-Spirit during the day and I download to you much information. However, this method is special and important - very important.

Don't lose heart. It's very easy to do, but not productive for my work on Earth. Yes, you have achieved a lot, but this is only a skerrick of what I will achieve through you.

There is a lull at the moment, make use of it to catch upon the things you need to do as there will not be a lot of spare time soon.

Your health is failing - see your doctor and get yourself fit again. Otherwise, you will not succeed in what I plan for you to do.

Today is a good day. Always see it that way. You drift off into introspection and negativity, and you destroy the impetus you get in the mornings. This is not good for you. It's unproductive.

Now this is what I wanted to tell you this morning: Keep close to me. There are those who are working to eliminate you from the spiritual landscape. They see you as a threat. Don't try to work out who they are, they will manifest in due time. It's to be expected with what I've given you and where I'm taking you. It happened before in XXXX¹ and it's coming your way again. Stick very close to me. Not even your wife will be a strength for you in this time. Keep your spiritual and natural eyes open so you're not overtaken by them. Yes, "them". There are more than one of them.

This isn't a signal to panic. Rest in me with the same attitude you did with the XXXX² accusation. It worked. You've proved it. I will defend you, so there's no need to concern yourself. Leave it all to me.

Today, I want you to change your attitudes...

(Section removed for the privacy of those who I had to change my attitude towards)

See. it's not all bad when I talk to you. Get over your dad's negative impact on your life. Be renewed I me and grow up as a son.

That's it.

Have a great day.

Laurence
