

PROPHETIC JOURNAL ENTRY: Focus on What's Important

This is what I want you to do today: Focus on what's important. Don't let your mind drift onto things that are irrelevant for me and my Kingdom. Yes, irrelevant. You see, what you do is 'infantile'. You think on those things that are natural, not supernatural. I want you to grow up and be more like me. Yes, me - not you and not others. Don't compare yourself with others, that is futile. Remember? You already know that. That type of thinking brings you down and will not see you rise to who I want you to be. Yes, what I want you to be.

Keep close to me. Danger lies ahead and faltering could be catastrophic for your growth and development. I say "catastrophic" because you have contracted [with me] to move ahead and not 'go around the mountain' again. You have committed to me full-time and fully-focussed, so do it.

I want you to hear more clearly. That means removing the 'noise' from your life. That noise overshadows and masks your spiritual hearing. Quietly listening and communing with me is essential for all messages to come through at this stage. Later, it will be easier.

When XXXX¹ comes today, look into her eyes and let her see me looking at her. Take her hand and be gentle, even if I give you stern warnings. She is a gentle person and needs to be handled sensitively at this stage of her maturity in the things of me. Yes, she will grow to be very effective for me, so this time of her life is critical. One wrong move could see her diverted to where she finds herself entangled and unable to free herself. This is not good for her as time is short and there is a lot I have for her to do. I need to become her life, not just an add-on. So it's important that you get it right and speak clearly and hear clearly.

This is my message for you today. Learn it and learn it well.
