

PROPHETIC JOURNAL ENTRY: I'm My Own Worst Enemy

This is the day I want you to focus on me. Keep your eyes on me, not on your circumstances. These circumstances are in my hands, so leave them with me. You can't affect them in any way, only I can. So, cease thinking and concerning yourself about them. They are a distraction and cause you to drift, so they need to be nullified.

I am your source, remember? So make me your source in totality, not partially. You have great inner strength in some areas which I have placed in you, but these are the things that will cause you grief when you take things into your own hands. Remember your past and the mistakes you made - don't make the same ones again.

Stick to me like a leech to the skin of a swimmer. Allow me total reign of your life and things will change dramatically. Yes, dramatically. You are holding up your own growth, development and progress, not me. Remember, I always say you are your own worst enemy. Very true. You can defeat what comes against you, but you can't yet defeat what's in you.

Learn from me. Learn with me. Learn through me, not your own mental capacity and reasoning. To completely renew your mind I need your submission to my processes. Nothing can occur until you do. Leave being in control. Leave looking at your research and teaching ability and learn from me - me only. Not even the Bible has everything I want you to know. Learn from me, not "of" me. Yes, that's crucial. I've been your tutor for many years now, but there's still much to learn. Much you need to be reprogrammed in and much knowledge of the spirit realm and your role in my Kingdom.

So, make a change today. Make it a day you will mark and remember - a turning point, not a normal day.

Yes, prayer and fasting has its place, but for you it's compliance with me. Don't chase after processes that others use - you are not them. Don't falter by looking at them and wondering if you're wrong. Allow me to school you (re-school you) because I know what you need and I know where I'm taking you.

Look after yourself better. You've weakened and faltered lately which is to your detriment.

I love you son. Stay close, as times will get tougher and I need you to be even tougher.

Remember, "No regrets" and "No disappointments". These are your main weaknesses. Control them.

Dad
