

PROPHETIC JOURNAL ENTRY: Pressure is Building

Yes, you are being tested. That testing is for longevity - for your stability and power in the days ahead. You must submit to my hand in this, as what I'm doing is essential for your success. Don't baulk at it. Don't ignore it. Don't put it off, it will not do you any good.

You've seen from Rick Joyner the essential need to go through my judgement.<sup>1</sup> You've seen from Mike Parsons<sup>2</sup> and Ian Clayton the essential need for my consuming fire to cleanse you and burn off all the dross. This is correct. This is where I'm taking you, so be clear in your mind [about it].

You've slowed down recently, so you need to keep a check on your soul and mind. I know you've been doing that, but there's more effort that's required to bring them into alignment with your spirit and with me.

Don't look at others - look at yourself. You're on a specific journey that no one else is going on. Others have similar paths to go down, but yours is unique to you. Don't baulk at the pressure I put on you. Don't look at the easier life others seem to have. Keep committed to your spoken desire to enter your destiny and to achieve what I have for you in this life. Keep a firm grip on yourself so you remain focused on those.

Remember, alignment with me is essential in every area of your life. Yes, you must love life - the life in the natural I've given to you - but it's your spiritual life that's the most critical. I say "critical", because I want to use you in a mighty way to help achieve my plans on Earth. You may not see it materialize in your lifetime, and much of it you won't [see]. You will be key to the future generations' success in your nation, so think generational as I told you before.<sup>3</sup>

There's much for you to do, so get going with it. Keep in alignment with me and guard your heart - it's mine, no one else's.

There will be times ahead where you'll want to give up. Please see these as a normal human reaction and don't 'beat yourself up' about it. You're too hard on yourself and you know it. Trust me to take you where I want you to go and to become [who I want you to become]. I know you say to me on a regular basis that that's your desire, but as the pressure builds, it will become harder for you [not to give up]. That's where our love relationship and your tenacity will see you through every 'hiccup' that materializes.

Pressure is now building around you and in the world. You must 'steel' yourself for the times ahead. And remember, I've given you a forehead of 'flint',<sup>4</sup> so don't back-down or back-off from any opposition. Use your kingly abilities to deal with everyone and every situation.

You're doing well. Know that.

Love, Dad.
