

Father Wants to Share His Mysteries with His Sons

We believe the lie that the Bible has all the information we'll ever need. We also believe the lie that 'God'¹ is mysterious and we can't understand him. That's because we've been taught religion, not spiritual reality. Sure, there is some reality in what we've been taught, but there's much, much more available to us.

The amount of knowledge in the mind of the Trinity we could call 'limitless' by comparison to what our brains currently capable of. Even the life experiences of Jesus of Nazareth probably wouldn't fill all the books in the world.²

'Mysteries' in NT Greek just means 'secrets'. We all have secrets and most of those are not ones we want to keep from others. Most of what's in our mind is secret because we haven't divulged what's there to 'all and sundry'. That's exactly what Father's mysteries are – things he knows which we don't. His mysteries have nothing to do with occult or wicca mysteries, which is secret knowledge the enemy has that people don't know.

The nice, but unexpected, thing about Father's mysteries is that he wants to share all of them with us. It's our right and privileged as sons to have access to all of it. Here's his mind on that:

*"Why are you doubting, my child? Why have you entertained the lie that because I am cloaked in mystery, I must not want to share my secrets with you? It isn't enough to trust in my ways—I long for you to dive into the depths of my truth and seek me for greater understanding. That kind of understanding is deeper than your mind can interpret, much wilder and holier than your imagination can envision."*³

Those who have said, "Yes, I would like you to tell them to me", have been taught by Father many things that are strange to us. These believers are known as Christian Mystics, because they are privy to mysteries that other people can't access. There's nothing 'spooky' or unchristian about the term or the people.

If you want to learn from Father what he knows, you'll need to change your mind about mysteries.

Laurence

31-8-2021

(www.CanberraForerunners.org)

COPYRIGHT

This document is free to copy, republish and distribute, but only 'as is'. It is free to quote from at length.

All Canberra Forerunners' documents are licensed under

Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs 3.0 Unported License

Quotes are the copyright of their authors.

Free graphics are from www.clker.com & free photos are from commons.wikimedia.org unless otherwise credited.

(Readers will need to look up for themselves any scriptures alluded to in this document)

1 – 'God': I use this term in inverted commas because 'God' is the generic term people use, while I don't any more. I have an intimate relationship with the members of the Trinity, so I refer to them by name out of relationship.

2 – John 21:25

3 – Brian Simmons (30-8-2021) "I Hear His Whisper..." "I will reveal my mysteries."

mailchi.mp/broadstreetpublishing/00000-618438?e=3ca23beeed OR us10.campaign-archive.com/?u=8c3eb957a5ad87253d475a511&id=9859b6828b