

What's Important to Learn from the Book of Revelation

(Put together from: Jonathan Welton "The Art of Revelation" p:110)

Here are five of the most significant lessons we can learn from Revelation despite the fact that it does not prophesy events in our future:

1. We have been fully established in the New Covenant with our bridegroom, King Jesus.
2. All wrath has been poured out on the Old Covenant system and never has to be repeated.
3. We are working with the King to make all things new.
4. There is no reason to fear a future one-world government run by The Beast.
5. Jerusalem is not to be an idol for the modern Christian.
