

Kingship Requires This

Have you wondered why there's so much being received from the Spirit these days about oneness? I have. I thought it was just about a deepening of our love relationship with Father because he wants to draw me deeper:

"I greatly appreciate your time with me – your personal time in the mornings – and I know you do too. It's great to be together like that every day and for you to be strengthened and encouraged by it. However, deeper oneness is more than that, and that's where I want to take you. It's what you've asked for, so prepare yourself to go deeper. By that I mean, make yourself available and commit yourself to my hands to take you there. There's much blessing and rewards in this, so don't let your mind and soul prevent it from taking place."<sup>1</sup>

I now know that it's more than that. Oneness actually takes us to the place where we are him, where we're the King 'in skin'. Oneness is becoming so united that we meld together and become the same entity.

Now that has ramifications. Some implications that come from that reality include, speaking as him, declaring as him, decreeing as him and judging as him. That's BIG. It's plain, therefore, why he's been weaning us off praying for things to happen and praying for our needs to be supplied – we need to operate in our sonship, not as Christians.

Oneness is actually about our kingship, but it's not what we thought kingship would be. We thought we operated as a vice-regent under King Jesus, but that's not so. Our kingship, when it's fully mature, is being him, because we are 'one and the same', through oneness.

This is what Father told Kriston Couchey about it:

"Son, you received the revelation of oneness with Me to prepare you to do my will when the trumpet sounds. You have begun to embrace oneness with Me as Christ is IN you. Christ in you also teaches you to abide IN Me. My abiding in you changes your nature into Mine. But when you abide in Me there is an exchange of your authority for Mine. To truly become one with Me, your nature must first be changed, enabling you to receive a change of authority. Those who are one with Me will rule and reign with Me."<sup>2</sup>

We need to throw out everything we thought about our kingship and shift to what's real. That especially means we can't be presumptuous and act like a king when we're not in oneness with the members of the Trinity. That also means that we need to be very careful how and when we activate our role as a king – it's not child's play.
