

PROPHETIC JOURNAL ENTRY: Yield More Fully & Freely to Processes

Son, it's good to be with you again this morning. I've been looking forward to this time every day. You've been looking for encouragement, as your processes of transformation have been intense lately. Well, here it is.

You're being prepared for the future, as you know, and that future requires a lot of major changes in you, so you are prepared (fully prepared) for what you are to do. Yes, it will be difficult, and it will require a lot from you. However, the rewards are great for you and for my Kingdom. So, don't reject the processes I put you through, and yield yourself more fully and freely to those processes.

I'm not looking to smother what you are excited to be able to do for me. On the contrary, I'm molding and shaping you to prepare you so you succeed and are not taken out by the enemy. You want to do great exploits and be a significant impacter for my Kingdom. You will do that. However, you must change greatly and that requires even more surrender. That surrender, of course, must be voluntary and released with joy and trust in me.

These days are dark, and they will get darker, but you will shine for me in that darkness. Remember, everything I do for you and with you requires your consent. I don't work outside of your personal commitment and desire to partner with me. This is why more molding is required of you because your mind is so strong. You must learn to bring it into subjection to your spirit so my Spirit can use you more.

I love you son and only want the best for you. You realise that, but you haven't got to the place of total surrender of every component of your being which will allow me to do what I need to do. Your soul still has too much sway in your life - curb it. Your mind still overrides what my Spirit is wanting to do. Do you see that? I know you do, so what are you going to do about it? You see, it's all up to you.

Live long and prosper, my son. This is my desire for you. Never doubt it. Never listen to 'voices' which tell you otherwise. You'll need to keep guard against those 'voices', more and more, as you move into what I have for you, so be aware at all times of what's going on around you.

I know you are frustrated in a minor way with those who want you to "get excited" about what I am doing. Cheer up, they will realise the wisdom of remaining calm and sober¹ at all times. You are right - they are wrong. Your joy is internal and in me, so stay at peace and remain vigilant to keep even-keeled.

Love you son.

Let's do this journalling more often. You'll see the benefits of it.

Dad
