

A Conversation About Heaven's Blueprint

Heaven<sup>1</sup> has many blueprints which determine how things are required to be done on Earth so that they align with Father's plans. It's only the blueprints that Heaven releases which are guaranteed to succeed – provided they are carried out in Heaven's way and in Heaven's timing. These are the only acceptable plans that are approved in the Kingdom. That's why human plans don't advance the Kingdom and why they are rejected by Father. It's only his grace that allows any fruit to come from them, and that's really his forbearance of us, not his blessing.

For example: Marriage and married life done Father's way needs to come from a blueprint from Heaven. Done any other way, it deviates from the Kingdom way. Any wonder why most marriages are a 'mess' when compared to the way they were planned to be?

For example: Christianity, as it has been for 2,000 years, is a construct of the human mind and does not come from a blueprint from Heaven. That's why the Christian religion is currently being dismantled and being replaced by "the New Ekklesia"<sup>2</sup>.

I repeat, any construct or system that doesn't come from a blueprint released by Heaven does not belong in the Kingdom, it belongs in the world system.<sup>3</sup> This is why they don't receive Father's FULL blessing and favour, and why they don't prosper as Kingdom entities should.

So how do we get these blueprints? That's a task or function of genuine apostles. They have the 'ear' of Heaven and in the right time, plans (blueprints) are released to them for the ekklesia to implement. Plans received by pastors don't 'fit the bill'. Any wonder why the church system has made little or no impact for the Kingdom since the 2nd century with the absence of real apostles. All is not lost, though. The release of apostolic mantles has been happening this century, so there's good news for our future.

The most important blueprint was given to us by Jesus. It's the one that defines how humanity is restored back into Father's family, where Adam was originally. We call it "bringing people into the Kingdom". It's called "saving the world" in church-speak.

The blueprint Jesus gave us is LOVE. He gave us an injunction to love each other and said others would know we follow him by the love we display. Most people say that was his command, but it was Jesus releasing the blueprint for us. That's the difference between the Kingdom way and the religious/legalistic way. Why? Because the love has to come from him through our intimate relationship with him, it's not our type of love. Loving one another is known as 'the royal law', the one that comes from our royalty, being Father's sons. That's encapsulates the essence of Father's original plan.<sup>4</sup>

As we've been involved in religion for a long time, it's works that we think displays our love. In actual fact, love (Father's love) should ooze out of us and touch others. We shouldn't need to force it or 'conjure it up'. Even focusing too much on the Kingdom can redirect us away from the LOVE blueprint. That can easily happen, in the same way that fake/pseudo apostles are now 'anointing' themselves into the place of Heaven-appointed apostles.

We need a constant reminder of the LOVE blueprint to remain balanced and appropriately functioning for the King. Recently, Bill Yount was given such a reminder through a conversation with our King. It went like this:

"I keep hearing the phrase, "Go back to the drawing board. It's time to go back to the drawing board. The blueprint needs to be looked at again." ...

I said, "Lord, remind me of your strategic plan to save the world."

He said, "Ok, listen carefully: Love God and love people. And don't mess that up! And don't mess that up!"

Those words grip me. I said, "So You mean we need to love one another in the Body of Christ more, so the world will know we are Christians by our love?"

He said, "Not quite."

"Then You must mean to love everybody," I responded.

He said, "You're getting closer."

I thought for a moment, and said, "Lord, You wouldn't mean that we should love our government officials, like the Democrat and Republican parties?"

He responded, "You are red hot. You are red hot."

I said, "Why should I love them?"

He said, "Because I do. They were on the cross when I died, right beside you. One died for all. Your loving and forgiving will be your protection from a root of bitterness that will destroy you and many."

He continued, "I don't see Democrat or a Republican parties. I only see lost men and lost women on both sides. You only see men as trees walking, instead of seeing all men clearly. Love the lost and hate their sin and evil. I came to destroy the works of the devil, not people"."<sup>5</sup>

The only way the Kingdom will fill the whole Earth and the Restoration of All Things takes place is if sons LOVE others Father's way. It won't be through spiritual power like the movies show us, or through the display of miracles. Not even spiritual warfare will bring it about by defeating the enemy. Just like the cross was love's way that defeated the enemy, so it will have to be for the fulfilment of all Father's plans on Earth. There's no other way. Sure the other components of the Kingdom are vitally important, but the blueprint is LOVE.

Any wonder why he told us that our defiance is holding up his return. We defy him when we refuse to love unconditionally. In so doing we operate outside of the blueprint that's required for success.

Really, nothing more needs to be said, only action, which is to ask for more love to pour out on others.
