

An Analysis of Church Practices and Their Spiritual Benefits

(Using Cause-&-Effect Analyses)

PART 17: The Indoctrination of Sin Consciousness

This investigation using logic is designed to analyze religious practices promoted by the church system which are said to have 'proven' spiritual benefits, but which are misdirections as far as the Kingdom is concerned. My logic is cause-&-effect analyses, not human reasoning. Before reading this, make sure you read the 'Introduction' to this series first: HERE

PROPOSITION #17a: I propose that the focus on sin within the church system has a detrimental rather than a beneficial effect on Christians.

PROPOSITION #17b: I propose that foundation of focusing on sin consciousness is not based on spiritual reality.

Background

Sin consciousness was the hidden, unintended foundation of my life within the Christian religion. The mindset wasn't given that title, but it was preached from the pulpit in various forms such as 'dirty rotten sinners', 'sinner saved by grace', etc. These teaching – and there were many of them – focused on the sin in our lives and was designed to push us into becoming more holy by trying hard not to sin.

In the church system, this constant teaching on sin becomes indoctrination, as it's heard during preaching nearly every week. Added emphasis comes as it's the focal-point of Holy Communion, and it very often appears in the daily Bible reading ritual.

Problems

There are a number of problems with this indoctrination:

1. It has the opposite effect
2. Reality is ignored
3. Father is mischaracterized<sup>1</sup>
4. Life is not enjoyable
5. Liberty is eliminated
6. People are manipulated

Analysis

Sin consciousness is a debilitating church program designed by the enemy to keep believers from achieving their potential as sons. It's also used by the church system to keep the congregation in bondage to the organisation they attend. This takes place because of the teaching on Hell, which is formalized in the doctrine of ECT (Eternal Conscious Torment), and is supported by PSA (Penal Substitutionary Atonement). All these cause us to think Father is furiously angry with us, and not unconditionally loving.<sup>2</sup>

Sin consciousness inadvertently keeps the congregation in slavery to sin. By constantly concentrating on the sin in their lives, members do not know they are free of the wages of sin, and they battle against more sinfulness because it has become highlighted in their lives.

Propagated by the ignorance of church leaders, preachers and Bible teachers it has the reverse effect on believers, an outcome that should be obvious to any spiritually attuned person.

The Reality

The sins of every person were dealt with in the work that The Son did on the Cross as the man Jesus of Nazareth.<sup>3</sup> That means all our sins and transgressions are already forgiven before we even commit them.<sup>4</sup>

We don't need to focus on our sins at all. What we need is righteousness awareness, not sin consciousness, so that we decide to do and to say what's right (righteous<sup>5</sup>) in Father's sight – i.e. what he would agree with.<sup>6</sup>

Conclusion

There are no spiritual benefits from focusing on sin consciousness. That's because it's completely negative and at odds with the Kingdom, and should be avoided at all costs. Anyone attending a church group that operates on the premise of this theology should consider leaving ASAP and find a place where there is freedom, liberty, grace, peace and joy, which are the characteristics of the presence of the Spirit.
