

Are You Thinking Nonsense?

I have been led to teach on self-assessment for a long time now,¹ especially concerning what we speak about.² I get regular information from Father about the need to be cleaned up and reprogrammed so I can be transformed. This refinement is critical for all of us so we're ready to carry The Presence and glory as Manifest Sons.³ Without being transformed, so we think like him and operate out of a heart like his, we'll be disqualified from being part of the big move towards the Restoration of All Things. That's because we won't be able to carry what he will release to sons so they can impact the Earth.⁴

NOTE: This is not a holiness-push – that's a religious concept. It's about being just like Father, in the same way that Jesus said that he perfectly represented Father.

One area we need to assess, if we haven't been doing it already, is our thought-life. Mine's far from perfect, but I keep monitoring it and bringing it into alignment with where it should be each time it drifts. Over time, as I'm transformed from the inside-out, I have less deviance in my thinking.

Father is now encouraging us to monitor what we think about. This is a recent message from him:

“Examine the nonsense in your thinking. For I say, indeed, many of you are occupied with nonsense. But, I would have you choose to believe and receive that which I am bringing and imparting rather than leaning on your own understanding. Reflect on and examine your thoughts, attitudes and motives. My purposes for you are not to muddle around in the things of the world, but for you to ascend on high and live in the realm of spiritual experience. So rise and come higher, and let the wind of My Spirit move you, and let the anointing of My word⁵ perfect you, says the Lord.”⁶
