

Compromise is Not an Option

Life in the Kingdom is a balancing act¹ between the life of the spirit and the desire of our base nature² to live out of our soul and mind. For most of us life is one of compromise where we give in to our mind and soul because we're not spiritually strong enough to resist.

In the Kingdom, as Jesus of Nazareth³ demonstrated, compromise is not an option.

Here's our King's message about that:

*“Dig deeper to know what is in you that needs to be refined, and reach higher to establish yourself more completely in the Spirit. The flesh profits you nothing, but living in the Spirit is everything. Compromise is not an option.”*⁴

Our aim as sons is to have our spirit ruling our being, in concert with Holy Spirit. That has always been the way it was intended to be, and it was the way that Adam originally lived before The Fall.

Our action is to build ourselves up spiritually so we mature in alignment with Heaven's kind of spirituality. Religion will never do that. It can only make us more religious or morph us into a spiritual-religious hybrid. I was in religion for much of my life and know what happens spiritually. I can attest to how religion defeats the bulk of what the Spirit is trying to do in each of us.

IMPORTANT: Spiritual hybrids are not reflections of who we are in Heaven, “seated” with Jesus. That means Heaven is unable to operate through us on Earth, according to our potential.
