‘Insight from the Referendum Result’

“The referendum displayed what you have been personally asking for. That is, the exposing of those things that are hidden and covert. I remind all my people in Australia, that it is their responsibility for what happens in Australia. Whatever happens in this nation is primarily a factor of their alignment with me.”

Here's an example of covert activity that relates directly to the referendum

‘The communications since received indicate widespread concern about trends pertaining to this and other defence-related issues. I was requested to ‘hurry up’ with the suggested papers on Communist manipulations of “multi-culturalism” and the associated issue of what type of migration is best to maintain a homogeneous and secure Australia; all issues related to defence. This book is the result, which above all is a call for action for the defence of Australia against the psychological warfare being waged upon us. My own original concern has naturally stemmed from what I learned about communist strategy and tactics through a lifetime in the Labor and Trade Union movement, and intensified by the years I spent inside the Communist Party. As a member of the party I learned about communist opposition to the “White Australia” policy and plans of making Australia a Communist Country by establishment of Black Republic areas of Australia inhabited by Aborigines.’

Marxist dialectic materialism (a theory advanced by Marx and Engels) doesn't follow logic, so it's impossible to reason and understand Communism without reading their literature and their policies.

This is why we can't see Communism (Marxism) at work in our nation and anywhere else.

HOW COMMUNISM CREATED ISLAMIC TERROR

“Terrorism has always been a tool of communism. This includes Islamist terrorist movements. Much of this goes back to Sayyid Qutb, who is regarded as the Karl Marx of Islam. His works, which were regarded as heresy within the religion, went on to become key doctrines for modern totalitarian states in the Muslim world, and key doctrines on the use of terrorist violence. Movements that pull directly from him include al-Qaeda, Hamas, and Hezbollah. And these movements are intertwined as well with direct training and operations from the former Soviet Union, and from the Chinese Communist Party today. In this special episode of Crossroads, we'll explain this history, and how terrorism is rooted in communism.”
