

“Don’t Carry What I’ve Already Paid the Price to Free You From”

Read the title again.

Let it sink in.

Our King has freed us from so much – it’s astounding in it’s totality.

Unfortunately, our mindsets, and the teaching we’ve been under, have kept us from receiving all that the Kingdom has to offer us.

Here’s what he said about that recently:

“Come closer to me and Heaven will invade the brokenness. My glory will explode every chain of heaviness. I’m standing beside you—in you. I created you, and I know how to heal you and refresh you. I am your wisdom. I speak life into every dead thing. I resurrect the joy that grief has stolen. Resign that weight to me and receive my grace. You don’t need to carry what I’ve already paid the price to free you from. I encapsulate all you need. I am enough. Rest in me, and I will fill you so completely, there will be no room for any contrary thoughts.”¹

If only we’d step out and receive it all, we’d live amazing lives, just like Jesus of Nazareth did.
