

Don't Feed On What Brings Spiritual Death

There's only one source to spiritually revive yourself, and that's by connecting spiritually to the Trinity, especially developing deep oneness with them.

NOTE: Religion, legalism and what the world has to offer don't bring life, only spiritual death. By 'spiritual death' I mean that in comparison to the real¹ life in union with the Trinity, anything else will not bring spiritual life to a person. And there are levels of this personal spiritual revival too.

There's only one source of personal spiritual revival, and that's by connecting spiritually to the Trinity through an intimate relationship with them.

NOTE: That relationship, along with inhabiting their presence, brings real life that revives our 'dryness' and our vacuous lives.

There's also only one source of national spiritual revival, and that's through connecting spiritually to the Trinity through relationship.

NOTE: Praying for 'God'² to bring revival ignores the responsibility we have to align with him so we tip the spiritual 'balance' in the nation and provide impetus for him to work.³ Evangelism of the evangelical style won't achieve national spiritual revival, especially one that's lasting. History has shown the truth of that with the fade-out of all revivals in the past. We need the type of outreach to others that Jesus of Nazareth provided the example of. That was living and connecting with all types of people, meeting their needs and demonstrating the Kingdom to them.

There's only one source of national change, and that's through connecting spiritually to the Trinity.

NOTE: When the nation changes spiritually, to that of the Kingdom, the Kingdom will impact the nation in very positive ways. The nation will then undergo massive changes and improvements.

Here's Father's instruction on this matter of revival that many Christians are earnestly praying for:

"Walk in the light of life in the Spirit. I hear your cries for revival, and yet you often feed on that which brings spiritual death. You set your mind and thoughts on things that tie you to the world and deplete your vitality. Rise up now and seek to be established in new life and power that only comes through relationship with me," says the Lord. "Then you will be revived.""⁴

Everything good and great flows out of life with them. And, it's even better when we're in deep oneness with them.

Here's an encouragement from John Crowder to draw on the reality⁵ of what The Son did for us, which now, is for everyone in the Kingdom under the New Covenant.

"You have been vitally and concretely grafted into the tangible bliss of the Godhead. Miracles. Healing. A flourishing, prosperous life. The daily enjoyment of His intoxicating presence. This is ours. Absolute freedom from sin as you recognize your true God-given righteousness. Not holy in theory alone...your entire old corrupted self was co-crucified with Him, as you shared a death with Him. I have been co-crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I live in the body, I live by the faithfulness of the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. As a new creation, you have been liberated from the struggle of self-improvement. Absolutely flawless, our old fearful, sinful, blemished selves have been eradicated once and for all. Perfected once and for all by His sacrifice, we can drink daily from the fountain of our union with Him, no longer expecting defeat. As our mind changes regarding the truth of our identity, our outward lives bear corresponding fruit. No longer believing the false humility pop mantra of our times that we are “still sinners” bound to decay, poverty, disease or addiction. We are sons and daughters – our true identity shines from the inside out chock-full of inheritance. Right here. Right now.”⁶

2 – 'God': I use this term in inverted commas because 'God' is the generic term people use, while I don't any more. I have an intimate relationship with the members of the Trinity, so I refer to each of them by name, out of relationship. From my oneness with them, I collectively refer to them as The Trinity.

Want reviving of any sort? The Kingdom is the source of the very best life – it will revive anyone, if allowed to.
