

Everything's in Place, but We're the Holdup

As I explained in 'Why Very Little has Happened in the Kingdom To-Date'¹, we're always the problem holding up the Trinity's work to bring about The Restoration of All Things². It's not the enemy's fault – it's ours. The enemy is only able to hold things up because we submit to him. The other way is that we unconsciously allow him to work in our lives, our families, our cities and our nations. That misdirects us so we're not 'on task' for the Kingdom.

Some of the other reasons we're holding things up are:

1. We're set on religion as the way Father wants us to work with him and for him.
2. We're bound up by legalism and can't make any headway in the work of the Kingdom.
3. We allow life, with it's problems and concerns, to take our full focus.
4. We're biding our time so we can escape life and go to Heaven.
5. Our Futurist Eschatology³ has us focused on 'The End', the Rapture and the Tribulation.
6. We are unaware that we're supposed to be co-working with Father to see total restoration take place.
7. We are unaware that we're supposed to manifest our sonship in the same way as Jesus of Nazareth did.
8. We are unaware that what was achieved on Earth by Jesus has taken us back to where Adam was originally, and all that we have to do is allow Father to train us to operate in our full capacity.⁴

In regard to the last point above, here's Father's message to us, to enlighten our mind to what our potential really is:

*"Give yourself to me with wholehearted devotion, and the glory within you will shine so brightly, darkness will tremble. Your radical obedience will catapult you into my strategic plans that release your breakthrough. You are unstoppable. You have the backing of heaven and the favor only a child can have. If you could see the angels that have been released to you, you would never be intimidated by the enemy. I have given you everything you need to overcome."*⁵

Our identity is in our sonship and our functionality should be out of who we spiritually are as sons. That's very much more than the Pentecostal and Charismatic power gospel. In fact, having been in both those systems, that gospel is a distraction from our role as sons. I'm pleased I've been reprogrammed and taught by Father, and can see that "oh so clearly now".
