

Father Wants Us to Change What We Believe

Unfortunately, religion and legalism keep us trapped in a set of beliefs and doctrines that we can't break free from. To break free requires revelation from the Spirit, but we need to be open for to receive revelation. We also need to give him permission to impart the revelation that's required. Our best tack is to ask to be changed and to ask for revelation that will change us. Only then can we break free and come to true knowledge – that is, the knowledge of the Trinity.

Father is calling us to just that:

“Beloved, I will lead you by my Spirit to search the height and depth of your own soul and spirit to see what you really believe and to reveal the places in you that are not aligned with the truth of my word¹ and will. Corrections are necessary in order to find your optimum spiritual flow.”²
