

Father's Mind on the Ekklesia

Kriston Couchey records that Father constructed his circumstances in a couple of ways so he could impart his mind to him concerning his sons, especially the ekklesia (ecclesia).¹ Here's an important segment of what he learnt:

“Love-based relationship is the most important aspect of the Kingdom. But it CANNOT establish the Kingdom of God by itself. The love relationship we have with both Heavenly Father and our brothers and sisters in the Holy Spirit, has a proper order in which to reside and from which to be poured out. The nature of God is as wine, and the structure that contains and releases it is the wineskin.

The wineskin in its simplest form is people, not an organization. The wineskin that contains the wine of His Love is also described as the many-membered body of Christ. This God-ordained structure expresses the love relationship Father desires with all of creation. The structure of the ecclesia is portrayed as a body with different parts and varying operations, functions, and purposes...

Christ is the elder; apostle, prophet, pastor teacher, evangelist, healer, miracle worker, exhorter, encourager, intercessor, and so much more.

He expresses Father's Love through His people as He exercises His authority within each one as He has gifted each one; be it spheres of influence or ministry gifts. These varying operations of Christ's authority through us is how He has 'structured' us uniquely.

This many-membered structure is meant to express the very heart of our Father to creation just as Christ Jesus did to those He was sent to. These gifts of authority, released in and through the body, are truly God Himself expressing His nature through us as He serves and builds up His body. The body, submitting to the Head, works as one in love relationship to express all that Jesus Christ is.”²

A very important point he learnt is this:

“So, let me clearly state that the thing which has enslaved and brought the people of God under fear of men rather than the Fear of the Lord, is LEADERSHIP in the church controlling others with man's fleshly wisdom and works (strength). It has made God's children slaves to men's will and agendas, just as Rameses did thousands of years ago [to the Children of Israel in Egypt].”³

At this time in history (in this new era of the Kingdom)⁴ Father is now dealing with church leadership, He said to Kriston:

“I will delay no more, I have personally come now to take back what is mine and has been stolen by men, those who have taken My people as captives to their own wills will stand in fear of ME!”⁵

What will Father do about it? Read “The King is Coming: But Not How You Think”⁶ for the information.
