

Have You Got the Message Yet? It's About Alignment!

What Father wants is for his sons to align completely with his heart, mind and plans. That's our responsibility. He's not demanding it. He's not going to punish us in any way if we don't. What he's been doing is teaching us how to be sons – part of his deprogramming from being Christians or 'followers of Jesus'.

Our first instruction on alignment came in 2015 in a CCOP prophetic message. This is what he said:

*"See to it, Canberra, that this happens. It is your responsibility, it is your city, you live here. You are the people, you are the politicians. It is your responsibility to toe the line and bring things into order, into alignment with me. This is the day of decision making, a day of weighing in the balance."*¹

Here's the importance of being in alignment, as far as Father's concerned:

- 'Alignment' was used by him in 68 CCOP messages since 2015
- 'Align' was used by him in 168 CCOP messages since 2015

The year 2015, the year of our first notification, was just one year after messages were received around the world about alignment.

In the year before (in 2014), Bill Burns released this prophetic message containing this introduction:

"In 2012 God began to reveal his divine government to the hearts of those who desired to live under his rule. In 2013 the Lord brought his order into the lives of those willing to live under his rule. Divine order has been established among his people.

2014 will be known to many as the "Year of Prophetic Alignment". In this season the Spirit of the Lord will align his people with his purposes. This alignment will be brought by way of revelation of God's purposes (plans) for individuals; these revelations will come through dreams, visions, prophetic words, signs, and wonders.

*We must stand watch and listen so that the opportunities for alignment are not missed. When the revelation of God's purpose comes, you will be aligned, brought into spiritual positioning, to go through the door that is being opened to you."*²

In 2014 there was also a call for alignment through Elaine Tivolacci:

*"I will...bring you into alignment with My will as deep calls out to deep"*³

Later, in 2016, David Wagner was given this message:

*"I Am granting you access to secret chambers and dimensions of my heart. You are being armed with an arsenal of my ability and I am adorning you with my favour like never before. Accept my word and align yourselves with what I have spoken. Anticipate the greatest hour that has ever existed."*⁴

It's now exactly 10 calendar-years since the first message was published by Forerunners calling for our alignment with Father and our King. These messages originated prophetically – straight from The Throne.

Here's the most recent message urging us to align with Heaven:

*"I will lead you to a high place in the Spirit," says the Lord. "Progression will be your theme as you move with me. I have things to show you, but you need to make sure that your reach is beyond your grasp; that your expectation is beyond what you can see in the natural realm. That which seems impossible will become possible when you align your will with mine.""*⁵

What's been our personal response to this directive?

How much of our lives, thoughts, attitudes and desires are in alignment with the Trinity?
