

Hearing Father's Personal Word and Acting On It

In a spin-off from my series of prophetic articles that covered the sonship topics of identity, imagination, and creativity,¹ this article covers an important aspect of how we are to function. The content nestles in that series, because it's about maturing in our sonship so we can operate in our role as overseers of Earth (planet-managers), however embryonic that may be at this stage, as we look to become fully mature sons who bring about The Restoration of All Things. That event may be a long way in the future, but having taken almost 2,000 years to get to the point where the Kingdom and sonship are taking a hold of the Father's people, it's time to embrace it. If we don't move with Father as forerunners, who's going to train the next generation, and the next. If we don't latch onto what Father has always intended for his sons, he'll be held up for longer – maybe another 2,000 years.

Read this message:

“You have heard my word, and it has declared your potential and established the possibilities of that which I am bringing you into. My word will be performed in your life as you believe it and exercise your right by way of freewill to have victory over all of the works of the enemy. I declare that you are able to rise up in spirit and defeat whatever has established itself against you. Receive healing and be well,” says the Lord.”²

Although it's couched in church verbiage, because of the receiver's attachment there, it still contains some 'energizing' content from Father which should hit home on the importance of spiritual communication.

Let's see what it conveys to us from Father.

1. Father speaks to us personally, Spirit-to-spirit. This is his word to us,³ as it has always been.⁴
2. Through our relationship with Father he'll speak to us about his plans for us, including our giftings and potential.
3. He sets in place the processes to realise his plans for us, but only when we follow his prompting and don't go off 'doing our own thing'.
4. We must believe what he's told us, acting in faith on that, if we want to see it eventuate.
5. As sons, we have the right to operate autonomously out of our free will. That's a right of all human beings, but sons need to align that with Father so his plans are not stifled.
6. Our faith in him and his good plans for us require our decision-making to include making choices that give us success when the enemy wants to eliminate Father's goodness.
7. We can defeat the enemy and his plans, Father has declared that is the case. We have his authority which the enemy can't countermand.
8. It's Father's desire that we live in the fullness of his Kingdom, right here and now.

Fantastic!
