

IMPORTANT: Move Forward Spiritually to Keep Up

We must all move forward because things are rapidly changing in the Kingdom. If we don't move on, we'll not be at the forefront where forerunners are meant to be. We can't lead the way for others to follow if we are content where we are spiritually. We know the road to full spiritual maturity as a son, priest and king is definitely not easy, but we must go on because that's what's expected of every son.

The main direction Father is taking us is deeper into oneness. He confirmed this to me in July this year when he said:

“I greatly appreciate your time with me – your personal time in the mornings – and I know you do too. It's great to be together like that every day and for you to be strengthened and encouraged by it. However, deeper oneness is more than that, and that's where I want to take you. It's what you've asked for, so prepare yourself to go deeper. By that I mean, make yourself available and commit yourself to my hands to take you there. There's much blessing and rewards in this, so don't let your mind and soul prevent it from taking place.”<sup>1</sup>

For those who don't read my monthly online publication “More on this Current Time in the Kingdom” (HERE), below is a tiny extract from what Father has been saying to Kriston Couchey on his journey to maturity over the past year or so. It reaffirms for us Father's desire to take us deeper into oneness:

“I have positioned you as one of many witnesses as to what I am doing in and through my people in this day. As I have told you before; the day of merely revelation has come to manifestation in my sons. What you write from my heart will bear witness with others and encourage them to find their destination in Me. The gifts are not going away, but the one who becomes one with Me will function in whatever capacity I deem necessary. Do not identify yourself simply as a gift to equip; your identity is in Me as my son, and my heart is simply that you establish that identity in others.

The place of visitation and preparation can no longer help you as the doorway to oneness has been opened. Unless you choose to trust and walk with Me in oneness, you will shrink back into that former, lesser light. You will move back from intimacy to friendly acquaintance, a place where many who call themselves followers of Me remain.

In this day I am raising up a generation of children who will not need to make the journey from religion to oneness as you have. They are being birthed into oneness as my sons. Indeed, many are even now being birthed outside the walls of religion into union with Me; and while they cannot see it now, they will need the wisdom of many like you who have fought the good fight for the freedom to walk as sons.

For those of the previous generation who have believed and yielded to my preparation, their wilderness journey is now complete, the promised land is before you and now I will glorify Myself in and among my own.”

Here are the takeaways from what Father said to Kriston. These are the points which are critically important for us to take on-board. (Some of these we've already been shown.)

1. Forerunners are meant to display to other believers what Father is currently doing in and through his people.
2. The days of being spiritual by just receiving revelation are over.
3. This is the time for the manifestation of mature sons in the world.
4. What we write and speak from Father's heart will resonate with others, rather than quoting the Bible.
5. What we write and speak from Father's heart will encourage others to join us to become genuine sons.

6. The charismata (Gifts of the Spirit) will remain, but Father will use his mature sons without them, in whatever way he wants.
7. Our identity is not in our charismatic or pentecostal 'ministry' gifts to "equip the saints", but as sons.
8. Father's heart is for the same identity to be established in others, which is our job to assist making it happen.
9. The visitations we've had and continued preparation will be spiritually useless to us once we move deeply into oneness.
10. We have the choice to remain where we are in lesser spiritual maturity which Father calls "friendly acquaintance". Many believers live there.
11. We have the choice to move on in oneness through trusting him to take us on the journey.
12. Sons are being raised up these days who will move immediately into oneness, rather than going on the journey out of religion, which we have done.
13. Many of those sons will come from outside of religion, so they'll need the wisdom we have to live in the world and in the Kingdom.
14. Our task will be to train, disciple and mentor these new sons.
15. Those of us who have been going through wilderness of preparations, that's being brought to an end, so we can move into what our major Kingdom assignment is.
16. Father will glorify himself in his mature sons so that the world will be able to see them and so, acknowledge his existence.
