INVESTIGATION

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me."

Does that mean:

 Through what he's done for all humanity,

or

Only by confessing him?

If we stick to Christian dogma, then it's both – the second option is essential.

What if our theology today doesn't match what Jesus, Paul and the first believers understood to be the situation?

We've believed so many lies, half-truths and error before, we shouldn't be afraid to follow this thought through to see where it leads.

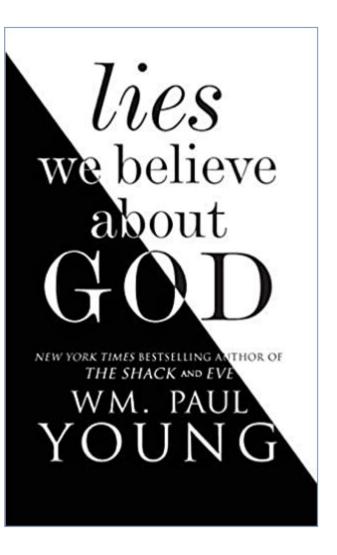

After all, if we absolutely trust Father's leading of our lives, then he won't lead us into error.

If we do stray there, he'll tell us the truth – provided we listen to his voice.

So, here goes!

Let's do more investigating

Investigation

Using the Bible, theological discussion, and personal anecdotes, Paul encourages us to think through beliefs we've presumed to be true and consider whether some might actually be false - sin, religion, hell, politics, identity, creation, human rights, and helping us discover God's deep and abiding love.

Investigation

Wouldn't you know it?

There's already an attack on Paul Young's book
