

If You're Not in His Presence Every Day...

If you're not in Father's (or the King's) presence every day then you're missing out on a lot of benefits. It's as simple as that.

Being in his presence, being in an intimate relationship, and being in oneness, is not an end in itself (i.e. there's nothing more). We may think it's our focus because that's what Father wants, but those connections with him are about being 'home'<sup>1</sup> where we're meant to be.

That relationship is what he wants, not as a command, but as his desire. Therefore, there's no compulsion, law or rule that we are following when we embark on the journey to make those types of connections with him. It's important then, that we disassociate those connections from any religion or super-spirituality, because they have nothing to do with living with Father as family<sup>2</sup>.

In his family,<sup>3</sup> there are benefits, but those 'goodies' only come to those who function as family with him. Any other idea outside of sonship and family that may 'raise it's head' in this regard is counter-productive. You see, the Kingdom has nothing to do with what we think or what we've been taught. That's because the Kingdom operates from the Tree of Life, while the world system, society, natural life and man-made religion all come from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.

One of the benefits of being in Father's (or the King's) presence all day long, even while we go about living life in the natural, is the provision of vision<sup>4</sup>, knowledge, wisdom and hearing via the Spirit. Praying for these is inferior to being connected 24/7 in a spirit-to-Spirit way, so that lines of communication are always open for us to receive.

Here's Father's mind on that:

"Arouse yourself. Be awakened to the season of opportunity that is before you. Come up higher. Come up to My mountain<sup>5</sup>", says the Lord. "It is a habitation in which you can be connected spiritually to the doors that are being opened to you. These are doors of opportunity that will make the way for you in the way of vision, the way of knowledge, the way of wisdom, the way of hearing and knowing by the Spirit."<sup>6</sup>
