

Is the Gospel of Salvation Very, Very Dodgy¹?

Background

We already know that the right gospel to present to others is the Gospel of the Kingdom, the same one that Jesus of Nazareth taught. We are not just to invite people with the Gospel of Salvation² because it's only a small part of the whole Good News. That's because everyone is entitled to enter into and receive the benefits of the Kingdom, not just 'salvation' – whatever that may be³.

NOTE: There are references to some of my articles on the Gospel of the Kingdom at the end of this document. They're for those who need more information about it.

As the Gospel of Salvation is only a component of the Gospel of the Kingdom,⁴ we must ensure that our understanding of that part (i.e. the Gospel of Salvation) actually aligns with the Kingdom and hasn't been 'polluted' by religion or by any philosophy. If we are wrong in any way about salvation or how we present it, we're not properly operating as emissaries of the Kingdom.

Investigation

To begin our investigation into the Gospel of Salvation, we must understand that as it's currently presented, taught and lived by modern-day Christians, it's a corruption of the reality that the Trinity has set up for us. That may sound harsh, but that particular Gospel is actually out-of-wack with the Gospel of the Kingdom. To help comprehend it's deviance, take a look at the 50 points in the table of the differences between the two gospels in my article "The Perverted Gospel of Salvation"⁵.

1 – "dishonest or unreliable; of low quality" [Google dictionary]

"not sound, good, or reliable" www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/dodgy

2 – IMPORTANT: "The Gospel of Salvation" is not a biblical term. It is one that evangelicals use.

(SEE: www.gracelife.org/resources/gracenotes/?id=40&lang=eng ; bible.knowing-jesus.com/topics/The-Gospel-Of-Salvation).

The closest NT use is "the Gospel of your salvation" (Ephesians 1:13).

We could easily stop there and settle in our mind that what we've been taught about "The Gospel" has been 'way off beam'. However, there's another area that I want to look at which will show that we subscribe to a dodgy Gospel of Salvation when we use it as it currently stands.

To set the foundation before beginning, there's an important injunction from Paul about the need to be careful not to be 'sucked in' by philosophies because they originate outside of the Kingdom:

Colossians 2:8 (NIV) – See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces⁶ of this world rather than on Christ.

Colossians 2:8 (MIRROR) – Make sure that you become no one's victim through empty philosophical intellectualism and meaningless speculations, molded in traditions and repetitions according to mankind's cosmic codes and superstitions and not consistent with Christ.⁷

The reason I start there with philosophy is because the Gospel of Salvation as we accept and use it today is founded in Greek philosophy, specifically Neoplatonism. That would be surprising to all evangelicals, because they are taught that the Bible is their foundation (sola scriptura)⁸, not the teachings of men.

Bruce Wauchope's Teaching

To uncover the Gospel of Salvation's real foundation, we need to listen to Bruce Wauchope teaching on it.

Bruce shows us that our salvation message is completely wrong because it's actually based on Neoplatonism, not the reality of the Kingdom as the Trinity set it up to be. That religion looks like this:

8 – "The End of 'Sola Scriptura'" canberraforerunners.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/10/The-End-of-Sola-Scriptura.pdf

That diagram looks very much like the Gospel of Salvation that we present to non-believers, except for the spheres of spirituality towards union with 'God'. Take a look:

That's scary!

Bruce also showed us from his investigation of the writings of the 'early church fathers'⁹, where Greek philosophy became embedded in the theology of the church. Here's what he discovered:

(NOTE: I've added Dante to the list to show where Hell was introduced.)

9 – en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Church_Fathers

As all types of modern day protestant Christianity came from Roman Catholicism, it's very easy to see in the diagram how the evangelical Gospel of Salvation has been 'polluted' by both Catholicism and Neoplatonism. This is known as syncretism¹⁰ and was warned about by Paul, as we read at the start of this investigation.

The Outcome

We should now be able to concur with Bruce that the Gospel of Salvation as it is used by evangelicals of all persuasions is "dodgy". Compared to the reality of the Kingdom, I'd prefer to say it's very, very dodgy.

From Bruce's teaching we should now make the following urgent changes:

1. Reject dualism – This is the Greek gnostic proposition that only spiritual things are good, while the physical, material world is evil.¹¹
2. Foundationally believe Father only operates lovingly – Father only operates this way, no other way. This is basis for the 'Father's Heart' principle. Everything must be assessed from this perspective.¹²
3. Accept the full work of the cross – That means we're already forgiven for anything we've done and anything we will do.
4. Eliminate all philosophies from our Kingdom beliefs – Anything that is philosophical or is derived from a philosophy does not come from the trinity. They come from the human mind and have no place in the Kingdom.
5. Allow ourselves to be completely deprogrammed and reprogrammed – We must only believe what we receive from Heaven. Anything we've been taught by family, school, society or the church must not be part of our Kingdom beliefs unless they concur.
6. Cease preaching the evangelical Gospel of Salvation – We should introduce people to the Kingdom via Father's heart and what he's shown us about his Kingdom.
7. Reject the tenets of Roman Catholicism – That goes without saying.

Bruce isn't the only person who has discovered the errors in what we've been taught in the church system. For example: Father has shown Mike parsons that much of what the church systems teach is not from him. Watch this teaching of his:

- Mike Parsons "Belief systems programmed by the religious constitution" youtu.be/xWeaiGCstRE

Mike also concurs with Bruce Wauchope about the Gospel of Salvation:

*"We've got to have the right message, and therefore, the Evangelical message¹³ needs to be completely unravelled. People need to see it for what it is: A total lie which presents God as a god who's angry and needs appeasing and a God who will punish if you don't toe the line."*¹⁴

Where to Now?

If the evangelical Gospel of Salvation is wrong because it doesn't line up with Father's reality, what do we do when speaking to non-believers?

The way we evangelise has to be done in relationship to the Kingdom, not to the Christian religion. This is the same method that Jesus of Nazareth used when he preached.

Our method is to introduce people to their Creator and let them know that he accepts them because there's no barrier between us and him. Any unrighteousness (sin) has been dealt with, so we can freely come to him. His Son, King Jesus, is now the Sovereign Majesty, ruling over the whole created realm. Each person's responsibility is to give allegiance to him. Once in Father's family, he will train us as his sons to partner with him and King Jesus in managing planet Earth. The King's Kingdom provides benefits for all who become citizens of it.

Therefore, our purpose is: To transmit the eternal love story that's wooing humanity.
